EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

During the year under review, the non-life industry achieved a positive growth and showed resilience despite the challenging environmental pressures. Non-life insurers reported total gross premium written (GPW) amounting to $277.35 million for the twelve months ended 31 December 2018 compared to $236.47 million reported during the same period in 2017, thus produced a 17.29% year on year growth.

In addition, seventeen out of twenty insurers were compliant with the minimum capital level of $2.5 million, whilst three insurers reported capital levels below the required minimum in line with capital regulations. Accordingly, the Commission shall continue to engage such non-compliant players to ensure that they submit recapitalisation plans.

Largely buoyed by the positive movements on the stock market, total assets for non-life insurers grew from $279.72 million as at 31 December 2017 to the current $350.64 million. Insurers are required to abide by our investment guidelines in order to sustain their capacity to liquidate their contractual obligations on time.

The industry average prescribed assets ratio for non-life insurance companies as at 31 December 2018 stood at 6.56%. Thus the non-life insurance sector was essentially compliant with the minimum requirement of 5%. The Commission has engaged the non-compliant players with a view to enforce consistency with regulations.

Within the reinsurance space, the volume of business written by non-life reinsurers grew by 7.90% from US$107.86 million reported in the comparative period last year to the current US$116.38 million and this was chiefly attributed to improved uptake of fire, miscellaneous accident and motor insurance business classes.

For the year ended 31 December 2018, Insurance brokers wrote $120.48 million in premium income. The business written by insurance brokers was 24.80% higher than the $96.54 million reported for the year ended 31 December 2017. Insurance brokers registered a 21.26% jump in the net brokerage commission, from $15.84 million reported in 2017 to $19.22 million in 2018

Reinsurance brokers reported $94.88 million in gross premium for the year ended 31 December 2018 reflecting an increase of 27.68% from $74.31 million reported for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Architecture of the Non-Life Insurance Industry

There were six-hundred and seventy-five (675) registered entities/persons in the non-life insurance industry as at 31 December 2018. The architecture of the industry is shown in Table 1 below.

Two insurers namely FBC Insurance Company and Alliance Insurance Company are composite insurers, however the figures in this report pertain to their non-life business only.

Regal Insurance Company is still under suspension and the statistics of its entity were not considered for this reporting period as they are not allowed to write any new business.

2. SHORT-TERM (NON-LIFE) INSURANCE COMPANIES

Please note that the analysis of the performance of the non-life insurance sector does not include statistics for companies which were under suspension as at the reporting date. Please refer to Appendix 1A-C for detailed statistics for all the non-life insurers.

2.1. Performance in Terms of Business Written

Total Gross Premium Written (GPW) by non-life insurers amounted to $277.35 million for the twelve months which ended on 31 December 2018 reflecting a 17.29% increase from $236.47 million reported for the comparative period in 2017. Figure 1 below shows the trend in volume of the business generated annually by non-life insurers since December 2014.

2.2. Gross Premium Written by Class of Business

In terms of business distribution, motor and fire insurance remained the key classes of insurance business in our industry. The two classes accounted for 65.40% of the total gross premium written during the period under review.

Table 2 below shows the percentage growth in gross premiums written per class of business for the twelve months which ended on 31 December 2018 and the comparative period in 2017.

The increase in gross premium written is attributable to more stringent underwriting mechanisms and associated reviewed risk premium rates in the wake of three-tier pricing systems in the market. The Commission encourages the insurance players to continuously ensure that they implement prudent underwriting techniques as opposed to cash underwriting in order to preserve value.

The emerging new digitalised distribution channels offer the insurance and risk management players an avenue of tapping into unserved markets, hence it is critical for the players to maximise distribution of the products through the use of enhanced ICT platforms.

2.3. Capitalization

For the period under review, seventeen out of twenty insurers were compliant with the minimum capital level of $2.5 million. The reported capital positions were computed without accounting for the dictates of Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017 which deals with non-admissible assets.

Compliance with minimum capital levels is a critical solvency indicator for players as it provides additional cushion to policyholder funds. (See Appendix 1B for the composition of each insurer's asset base). The reported capital positions for non-life insurers are shown in table 3 below.

Key:

	The insurer reported a capital position that was above the requirement of $2.5 million.
	The insurer reported a capital position which was below $2.5 million.

2.4. Asset Quality

Total assets for non-life insurers grew significantly from $279.72 million as at 30 September 2018 to $350.64 million as at 31 December 2018. This considerable growth in total assets was mainly due to a surge in equities and premium debtors that grew by $29.82 million and $19.30 million respectively. The trend in total assets is shown in Figure 3 below.

The assets of the non-life insurers remained fairly distributed across the investment classes though equities and premium debtors were the major contributors to the total non-life insurance total assets.

NB: Technical assets refer to reinsurers' share of outstanding claims and deferred acquisition costs.

Premium debtors rose significantly from $36.84 million reported in the previous year to $56.14 million for the twelve months ended 31 December 2018. The increase in the premium debtors was mainly arising from perceived increases in premium rates on the backdrop of temporary challenges on the operating and economic environment especially the multi-tier pricing systems. This usually gives rise to challenges in premium remission or payment by the insuring public.

Investments in prescribed assets declined by 5.02% from $22.21 million as at 30 September 2018 to $21.09 million as at 31 December 2018. Only eight (8) out of the twenty (20) non-life insurers were compliant with the minimum prescribed assets ratio. The Commission engaged the non-compliant players to submit compliance plans. Appendix 1C shows other indicators of asset quality.

2.5. Reinsurance

The industry average retention ratio declined from 60.82% as at 31 December 2017 to 58.41% for the twelve months which ended on 31 December 2018 partly demonstrating a slight decrease in risk appetite among the non-life insurance industry.

It is key for the industry to pay reinsurance premiums to ensure that they enjoy stable and sustainable growth. As at 31 December 2018, the average reinsurance creditors to reinsurance premium ratio was 22.91%, compared to the same period in 2017when the ratio was 26.81%.

Though there was a minor decrease in the average net business retention by the players as highlighted above, the player's balance sheets when analysed in line with statistics in Figure 5 above, show that the players are able to hold various groups of insurance policies in their accounts while adequately managing the risks involved in maintaining those accounts. (See Appendix 1C for more indicators).

2.6. Actuarial Matters

The non-life insurance industry reported a decrease in total technical liabilities from $72.81 million as at 30 September 2018 to $71.39 million as at 31 December 2018. The industry was considered to have adequate liquid assets to match its total technical liabilities as shown by the industry average liquid assets to total technical reserves of 147.95% reported as at 31 December 2018 compared to 127.57% reported as at 30 September 2018.

Notwithstanding the industry average liquid assets to reserves ratio recorded, some insurers reported ratios which were significantly below 100%, indicating that the reserves were not backed by liquid assets. (See Appendix 1C for the performance indicators of insurance companies in terms of Actuarial matters).

2.7. Earnings

Total profit after tax reported for non-life insurers for the 12 months ended 31 December 2018 was $41.47 million reflecting an incredible increase of 23.32% from $33.62 million reported in the comparative period in 2017. The key driver was the increase in Gross Premium Written (GPW) and unrealised gains which grew by 17.29% and 71.35% respectively. Other related income streams excluding investment income also significantly contributed to the positive increase in the total profit after tax for the period under review as these increased by 69.49% from $4.44 million to $7.52 million.

However, an analysis of pure insurance business performance without taking into account other income streams, the non-life insurers underwriting result declined substantially by 51.31% from $17.00 million as at 31 December 2017 to $8.28 million as at 31 December 2018. This shows that profit after tax growth, as explained above was mainly influenced by non-core insurance business like the unrealised gains and other income streams.

The industry average return on assets (ROA) and return on equity (ROE) declined sharply from 15.38% and 30.84% in 2017 to 15.16% and 28.17% in 2018 respectively. This indicates that the non-life insurers were not generating much income from their economic resources and assets on their balance sheets.

This is also explained by the drop in investment income from $5.39 million reported as at 31 December 2017 to $4.60 million as at 31 December 2018 , a year on year decline of 14.60% (For more performance indicators on profitability see Appendix 1C).

2.8. Liquidity

Total cash and near cash assets in the form of money market and short term prescribed assets increased from $84.43 million as at 30 September 2018 to $103.63 million as at 31 December 2018. Such a movement was mainly attributed to increases in cash and cash equivalents from $34.03 million for the twelve months ended 31 December 2017 to $55.66 million reported for the period ending 31 December 2018. The acid test ratio for individual insurers as at 31 December 2018 ranged from 1.69% to 967.07% as shown in Appendix 1C.

2.9. Market Share for Non-life Insurers

Zimnat Lion, Old Mutual Insurance and Nicoz Diamond Insurance Company were the market leaders in terms of GPW with a combined market share of 44.66% as shown in Figure 5 below, which shows market share in terms of GPW and NPW for the insurers.

In terms of total assets, Old Mutual Insurance Company, Econet Insurance and Nicoz Diamond Insurance were the market leaders during the period under review, with a combined market share of 44.19% as shown in Figure 7 below.

These market players are encouraged to devise strategies to preserve value in the underlying assets and implement proper risk management techniques.

3. REINSURANCE COMPANIES

Please note that the figures for PTA Reinsurance Company (Zep-Re) contained in this report are only for the institution's Regional Hub Office located in Zimbabwe.

Detailed statistics for all reinsurers are shown in Appendix 2A-C.

3.1. Performance in Terms of Business Written

The volume of business written by non-life reinsurers rose marginally by 7.90% from US$107.86 million as at 31 December 2017 to US$116.38 million as at 31 December 2018. The increase in GPW for the comparative period was attributed to growth in fire, miscellaneous accident and motor insurance classes.

Figure 8 below shows the trend in volume of business written by non-life reinsurers for the twelve months ended 31 December 2018 of each year since 2014 to 2018.

Hail and engineering business classes recorded the largest percentage increase in Gross Premium Written (GPW) while Aviation and Farming recorded negative growth.

Fire and miscellaneous accident remained the dominant classes of business as was reported in the previous quarter ending 30 September 2018.

The two classes of business constituted 56.34% of the overall business written for the twelve months ended 31 December 2018. Motor insurance remained the third highest contributor to the total GWP for the same period under review.

The insurance players are encouraged to ensure that they take advantage of the increasing opportunities in the industry to remain viable.

3.2. Capitalization

As at 31 December 2018, all the registered non-life reinsurers reported capital positions which were compliant with the minimum capital requirement of $5 million. The minimum capital required shown in the table below were not stress tested against the dictates of Statutory Instrument (SI) 95 of 2017 which discounts non-permissible assets.

Table 5 below shows the capital positions for non-life reinsurers.

The industry average solvency margin for reinsurers was 136.80% which was above the minimum regulatory requirement of 25%. The solvency margin for reinsurers as at 31 December 2018 ranged from 51.72% to 367.67% as shown in appendix 2C.

3.3. Asset Quality

Total assets for non-life reinsurers amounted to $177.40 million as at 31 December 2018, reflecting a 6.17% increase from $167.08 million reported as at 30 September 2018.

The growth in total assets was mainly due to increased investment in equities, prescribed assets and premium debtors from $62.98 million as at 30 September 2018 to $79.24 million as at 31 December 2018.

Investments in prescribed assets for non-life reinsurers continued on an upward trend as was reported in the previous quarter ended 30 September 2018.

The statutory assets amounted to $21.32 million as at 31 December 2018 from $18.23 million reported as at 30 September 2018 reflecting a 16.94% movement.

Only two non-life reinsurers were not compliant with the minimum prescribed asset ratio of 5% as at 31 December 2018.The non-life reinsurance industry average prescribed asset ratio as at 31 December 2018 was 13.98% and the average percentage was marginally greater than the 12.84% reported as at 30 September 2018.

On another hand, premium debtors rose from $26.78 million as at 30 September 2018 to $30.30 million as at 31 December 2018, reflecting a 13.12% movement. Equities also increased from $17.95 million reported for the period ending 30 September 2018 to $27.62 million for the quarter ending 31 December 2018. The movements in equities is a function of the performance of various counters on the local bourse while premium debtors is likely because of the current temporal challenges prevailing in our economy.

3.4. Retrocession

The industry average retention ratio was 64.98% for the year ended 31 December 2018 compared to 62.83% that was reported for the year ended 31 December 2017.

This shows an increase in the risk appetite by local reinsurers. Figure 12 below shows the retention ratios for all the reinsurance players as at 31 December 2018.

The industry's average retrocession creditors to retrocession premiums ratio increased significantly from 17.01% for the twelve months ended 31 December 2017 to 30.76% for period under review. The increase in the ratio shows twin vices; the players are either maximising various returns on their cashflows and/or they are facing various challenges in settling external retrocessors obligations. However, the Commission advises the players that in order to remain financially stable and sound, all retrocession dues must be settled in line with trade arrangements and agreements to ensure cover is not affected.

3.5. Actuarial Matters

As at 31 December 2018, non-life reinsurers' total technical liabilities amounted to $63.10 million, reflecting a 7.7% increase from US$58.55 million reported as at 30 September 2018.

The largest proportion of total reserves was attributable to gross outstanding claims which amounted to $31.08 million and accounted for 49.26% of the total technical liabilities.

The non-life reinsurance sector's average total liquid investments to reserves ratio was 152.82% as at 31 December 2018 and this indicates that the industry has adequate resources to match their technical liabilities. Appendix 2C shows the ratio of liquid assets to technical liabilities for individual reinsurers ranging from 76.52% to 657.77% for the period ending 31 December 2018.

3.6. Earnings

Total profit after tax for non-life reinsurers increased marginally from US$9.46 million for the year ended 31 December 2017 to US$11.35 million for the year ended 31 December 2018. The increase in total profit after was mainly attributable to associated increase in unrealised gains and other trading income for the period under review.

As a result of the growth in profit after tax, the industry average return on equity (ROE) and return on assets (ROA) improved from 11.26% and 6.83% recorded as at 31 December 2017 to 12.49% and 7.23% as at 31 December 2018 respectively..

The industry average loss ratio was 46.80% for the twelve months ended 31 December 2018, a significant increase from the 40.05% reported in the previous year. There was an increase in the net expenses ratio from 22.23% recorded in the previous year to 23.87% as at 31 December 2018. Resultantly the combined ratio moved from 96.73% as at 31 December 2017 to 98.10% as at 31 December 2018.

3.7. Liquidity

The liquid assets held by non-life reinsurers increased from US$39.75 million as at 31 December 2017 to US$52.58 million as at 31 December 2018. The increase in liquid assets could be attributable to efforts by players to ensure availability of funds to meet increased claims lodgements during the year.

The average acid test ratio for individual non-life reinsurers as at 31 December 2018 was 90.99%. Given the short-term nature of the insurance business, this indicates a satisfactory asset position, one that is necessary to meet policyholder obligations as and when due. The acid test ratios for non-life reinsurers is shown on Appendix 2C under liquidity.

6. CONCLUSION

6.1. Conclusion

The above report covered a range of key performance indicators that define the insurance industry as whole as at 31 December 2018. The fundamental reason for the existence of the insurance players is not only limited to provision of risk alternatives to the majority of possible policyholders, but to also ensure that the nation develops in line with the Government of Zimbabwe sustainable economic and social policies.

The respective insurance players are therefore advised and encouraged to ensure that all the regulatory and compliance requirements are met inclusive of the Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Counter Financing of Terrorism (CFT) expectations. This is critical to the protection of the policyholder funds and existence of a financially sound and stable insurance industry.

Despite the temporary economic challenges, the surge in respective fires which emanated in the fourth quarter of 2018 calls for stringent disaster recovery plans and business continuity plans by the insurance players. Further, there is need for effective and efficient risk management and risk assessment modalities to ensure that cover is provided when the need do arise.

Industry players are also encouraged to be highly innovative in terms of both product offerings as well as business models in order to enhance continued and profitable growth.

The Commission can not overemphasize the need to take advantage of technological advancements which in some cases offer profitable and sustainable business opportunities.
