REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ON FOREX DENOMINATED BUSINESS

1. Pursuant to Circular 15 of 2020 and the online trainings conducted by the Commission to bring clarity and finality on the submission of quarterly returns, we direct as follows:

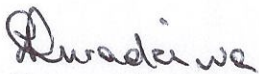

- a) All insurance companies, brokers and microinsurers to report a combined position ZWL position on the IPEC online portal. This implies the conversion of all foreign currency denominated business into ZWL at the prevailing interbank exchange rate and combine with traditional ZWL business to enable the submission of a single return on the online portal.

- b) All insurance companies, brokers and microinsurers to report all assets in ZWL on the balance sheet uploaded through our online portal. This includes USD denominated assets which shall be converted in line with the prevailing interbank exchange rate for reporting purposes.
- c) However, for disclosure purposes the industry is still required to submit a separate return for forex business in the format prescribed in circular 15 of 2020.
- d) The return for forex business should be scanned and submitted to insurance@ipec.co.zw and info@ipec.co.zw.

- 2. The IPEC online portal will continuously be improved to facilitate the submission of separate returns for ZWL business and foreign currency denominated business and the industry will be kept updated.
- 3. Please be advised that the Commission shall reject all fourth quarterly returns and future submissions which are not in compliance with this Circular.

Be guided accordingly.
