INVITATION TO THE INSURANCE REGULATORS' RETREAT FOR AFRICA – 04 TO 09 SEPTEMBER 2023.

The Commission invites you to the 2nd Insurance and Social Protection Regulators' Retreat for Africa scheduled for 06 to 08 September 2023 at Rainbow Towers in Harare.

The Retreat is jointly organised by the Commission, the Africa College of Insurance and Social Protection of Tanzania (ACISP), and the Organisation of African Insurance Supervisors Association (OAISA).

In addition to the main Retreat, an invitation is also being extended to the directors of your boards to a series of pre-retreat trainings and networking sessions, where Regulators and Board of Directors for Regulators, Re/insurance companies delve deeper into specific areas of interest. These trainings will provide an excellent platform for delegates to enhance their professional skills, establish valuable connections, and share best practices.

The pre-retreat sessions will run from 4 to 5 September, while the Retreat dates are from 6 to 8 September 2023. The 9th of September has been reserved for excursions.

The theme for the Retreat is “Innovation for Smart Insurance Development in Africa.” Discussions will focus on how collaborations can facilitate innovation in insurance for the African continent to ensure insurance industry growth for the attainment of sustainable insurance penetration. The event is expected to attract over 150 delegates drawn from government ministries, insurance firms, international organisations, financial institutions, pensions industry regulators, professional and academic institutions, technology companies, fintechs, insurance industry associations and several other stakeholders from across the African continent and beyond.

The Retreat, which is fast establishing itself as a regular event within the Insurance and social protection fraternity in Africa will showcase the insurance and social protection industry whilst creating networking opportunities.
