2024 Annual Reporting

1. We refer to the above matter.
2. Insurance entities are reminded that the due date for submitting the 2024 audited financial statements is 30 June 2025. Entities should ensure full submissions as follows:

- Statutory audited financial statements
- Abridged financial statements
- Annual return

- Actuarial reports should sufficiently provide supplementary actuarial information relating to the 2024 currency conversion as outlined in Circulars 8 and 11 of 2024 and a note detailing how the conversion was carried out
- Assets valuation reports

The submissions should be presented in ZWG as pronounced by the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe.

3. Incomplete submissions will be taken as non-submissions and regulatory sanctions and penalties will apply.
4. As per circular 3 of 2020, insurers are reminded of the requirement to submit abridged financial statements for publishing in at least One (1) widely read local newspaper and to publish on their respective websites. Entities are required to publish the financial statements within two weeks after approval by IPEC, late and non-publishing will attract penalties.
5. Listed entities and those under-listed groups are required to observe the ZSE and SECZIM listing requirements' due dates and they are still expected to seek IPEC approval at least two weeks before the publishing due date.
6. Entities are encouraged to embrace sustainability practices within their operations. Entities are further encouraged to prepare sustainability reports on a voluntary basis whilst we await guidance from the PAAB for mandatory adoption of sustainability standards.

Yours Sincerely

Grace Muradzikwa
