LIMITS

The liability of the Company under this Policy during any one period of Insurance shall not exceed in respect of any one item or number of items the amount stated in the Schedule against such item or items as the Sum Insured thereon or the market value at the time of the damage whichever is the less.

CONDITIONS

1. This Policy and Schedule shall be read together as one contract and any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached in any part of this Policy and Schedule shall bear such specific meaning wherever it may appear.
2. On the happening of any event giving rise or likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy coming to the knowledge of the Insured the Insured shall
 - (a) give notice thereof to the Company or its nearest representative as soon as possible
 - (b) take precautions to prevent any further loss or damage to the machinery (the Company shall not be liable in respect of any further damage arising out of the continued use of the machinery until the machinery shall have been repaired to the satisfaction of the Company)
 - (c) take precautions to preserve any damaged or defective machinery or things which might prove necessary or useful by way of evidence in connection with any claim and so far as may be reasonably practicable no alterations or repair shall without the consent of the Company be made after the event until the Company shall have had an opportunity of inspection
 - (d) when called upon to do so deliver to the Company, or its representative a statement in writing of all particulars and details reasonably practicable of the machinery affected and the value thereof and the damage thereto and furnish all such vouchers proofs explanations and other evidence as may be reasonably required by the Company together with a statutory declaration if required in verification of the statement.

If any claim be in any respect fraudulent or if any false declaration be made or used in support thereof all benefit under this Policy shall be forfeited.

3. The Insured shall, at the expense of the Company, do or permit to be done all such acts and things as may be necessary or reasonably required by the Company, for the purpose of enforcing any rights or remedies or obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties in respect of damaged machinery, and the Company shall be entitled to any benefit obtained therefrom up to the amount paid or payable under the Policy as a result of such damage.

4. If at the time of any damage covered by this Policy there shall be any other insurance covering such damage, effected by or on behalf of the Insured, the Company shall not be liable for more than its rateable proportion of such damage if such other insurance is subject to any condition of advantage to the Insurer this Policy shall be subject to such conditions in like manner.
5. The Insured shall at all times take precautions to keep the machinery in a proper state of repair, to enforce the observance by all persons of all proper safeguards against damage to the machinery and to ensure that all Government and other regulations relating to the operation and inspection of the machinery are observed
6. Notice of any intended alteration of or departure from normal working conditions which would materially affect the risk of damage must be given to the Company in writing. The Company shall not be liable for any damage resulting from an aggravated risk unless prior approval of the modification has been obtained from the Company. If the Company cannot approve any such modifications the Company may cancel the insurance on the machinery affected making a return of premium proportionate to the unexpired period of insurance.
7. The Company's officials or representatives shall have the right at all reasonable times to inspect and examine any machinery insured by this Policy. Dismantling and re-assembling in connection with any examinations shall be carried out by the insured on such date or dates as the Company and the Insured shall mutually agree for the making of such examinations.
8. The insurance granted by this Policy shall cease to attach any item or items described in the Schedule in which the interest in the insurance shall pass from the Insured, otherwise than by Will or Operation of Law, unless the consent of the Company for the continuance of the insurance shall be obtained and signified by endorsement hereon.
9. The Company may at its own option repair replace or reinstate any damaged item or part thereof, or pay the amount of the damage in money. The Company shall not be responsible for temporary repairs, carried out without the consent of the Company and any consequences thereof, nor for the cost of any alterations additions improvements or overhauls carried out on the occasion of a repair.
- 10 The Company may cancel this Policy by sending 30 days' notice by registered letter to the Insured at his latest known address and in such event will return to the Insured a proportionate part of the premium corresponding to the unexpired period of insurance.
- 11 If any difference arises as to the amount of any loss or damage, such difference shall independently of all other questions be referred to the decision of an Arbitrator to be appointed in writing by both parties, or if they cannot agree to a single Arbitrator to the decision of two Arbitrators, one to be appointed in writing by each party and, in case of disagreement between the Arbitrators, to the decision of an Umpire who shall have been appointed in writing by the Arbitrators before entering on the reference, and an Award shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Company or any right of action against the Company.
- 12 The due observance and fulfillment of the terms and conditions contained in this Policy or endorsed hereon, in so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured, and the truth of the statements and answers in the proposal and declaration, shall be conditions precedent to any liability of the Company to make any payment under the Policy.

PROVISIONS

The Sum Insured

It shall be a requirement of this Policy that the Sum Insured is equal to the cost of replacement of the insured machinery by new machinery of the same kind and capacity, which means its cost of replacement including, e.g., dues and customs duties, if any, and the cost of the erection. If the Sum Insured is less than the amount required to be insured, the Insurers shall pay only in such proportion as the Sum Insured bears to the amount required to be insured. Every item if more than one shall be subject to this condition separately.

The Basis of Loss Settlement

a) In cases where damage to an insured item can be repaired - the Insurers shall pay expenses necessarily incurred to restore the damaged machine to its former state of serviceability plus the cost of dismantling and re-erection incurred for the purpose of effecting the repairs as well as ordinary freight to and from a repair shop, customs duties and dues, if any, to the extent such expenses have been included in the sum insured. If the repairs are executed at a workshop owned by the Insured the Insurers shall pay the cost of materials and wages incurred for the purpose of the repairs plus a reasonable percentage to cover overhead charges.

No deduction shall be made for depreciation in respect of parts replaced, but the value of any salvage shall be taken into account. If the cost of repairs as detailed hereinabove equals or exceeds the actual value of the machinery insured immediately before the occurrence of the damage, the item shall be regarded as destroyed and settlement shall be made on the basis provided for in (b) below.

b) In cases where an insured item is destroyed the Insurers shall pay the actual value of the item immediately before the occurrence of the loss, including charges for ordinary freight cost of erection and customs duties, if any provided such expenses have been included in the sum insured, such actual value to be calculated by deducting proper depreciation from the replacement value of the item. The Insurers shall also pay any normal charges for the dismantling of the machinery destroyed, but the salvage shall be taken into account. Any extra charges incurred for overtime, night work, work on public holidays, and express freight shall be covered by this Policy only if especially agreed in writing.

The cost of any alterations, additions, improvements or overhauls shall not be recoverable under this Policy. The Insurers shall make payments only after being satisfied by production of the necessary bills and documents that the repairs have been effected or replacement has taken place, as the case may be.

LOSS OF PROFITS

The Company agrees that subject to the terms exceptions limits and conditions contained herein or endorsed hereon if during any Period of Insurance the Business carried on by the Insured at the Premises be interrupted or interfered with in consequence of an Accident then the Company will indemnify the Insured in respect of each item in the Specification against the amount of loss resulting from such interruption or interference.

PROVIDED that the liability of the Company during any period of this insurance shall in no case exceed in respect of each item the sum expressed in the Specification to be insured thereon or in the whole the total sum insured hereby or such other sum or sums as may hereafter be substituted therefore by memorandum signed by or on behalf of the Company

PROVIDED also that at the time of the happening of an Accident there shall be in force an insurance covering the interest of the Insured in the costs of repairs to or replacement of the Insured Machinery necessitated by such Accident and that payment shall have been made or liability admitted therefore under such insurance but if no payment shall have been made or liability admitted under such insurance solely as a result of the operation of any excess there under the liability of the Company under this Policy shall not be affected.

CONDITIONS

1. This Policy Schedule and Specification shall be read together as one contract and any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached in any part of this Policy Schedule or Specification shall bear such specific meaning wherever it may appear.
2. On the happening of any event giving rise or likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy coming to the knowledge of the Insured .The Insured shall :-
 - (a) give immediate notification thereof to the Company by telephone or telegram and send written confirmation thereof within forty-eight hours of the event.
 - (b) do and concur in doing and permit to be done all things which maybe reasonably practicable to minimize or check any interruption of or interference with the Business or to avoid or diminish the loss.
 - (c) discontinue the use of any damaged machinery unless the Company authorizes otherwise and the Company shall not be liable in respect of any further interruption or interference arising out of the continued use of any damaged machinery without the prior authority of the Company until such machinery shall have been repaired to the satisfaction of the Company.
 - (d) so far as may be reasonably practicable without causing any increase in the period of interruption or interference take precautions to preserve any things which might prove necessary or useful by way of evidence in connection with any claim.
 - (e) in the event of a claim being made under this Policy as soon as reasonably practicable at his own expense deliver to the company in writing a statement setting forth particulars of his claim together with details of all other insurances covering the Accident or any part of it or consequential loss of any kind resulting therefrom and at his own expense also produce and furnish to the Company such books of account and other business books such as invoices balance sheets and other documents proofs information explanation and other evidence as may reasonably be required by the Company for the purpose of investigating or verifying the claim together with if required a statutory declaration of the truth of the claim and of any matters connected therewith.

No claim under this Policy shall be payable unless the terms of this Condition have been complied with and in the event of non-compliance therewith in any respect any payment on account of the claim already made shall be repaid to the Company forthwith.

If any claim be in any respect fraudulent or if any fraudulent means or devices be used by the Insured or anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit under this Policy all benefit under this Policy shall be forfeited.

3. On the happening of any event in respect of which a claim is or may be made under this Policy the Company and every person authorized by the Company may without thereby incurring any liability and without diminishing the right of the Company to rely upon any condition of this Policy enter any building where the loss has happened and may take possession of or require to be delivered to them any of the Insured Machinery and may keep possession of and deal with such Machinery for all reasonable purposes and in a reasonable manner. This condition shall be evidence of the leave and licence of the Insured to the Company so to do. If the Insured or anyone acting on his behalf shall not comply with the requirements of the Company or shall obstruct the Company during any of the above mentioned acts then all benefits under this Policy shall be forfeited.
4. The Insured shall at the expense of the Company do or permit to be done all such acts and things as may be necessary or reasonably required by the Company for the purpose of enforcing any rights or remedies or obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties to which the Company shall be or would become entitled or subrogated upon its paying for or making good any loss under this Policy whether such acts and things shall be or become necessary or required before or after his indemnification by the Company.
5. If at the time of any Accident resulting in a loss covered by this Policy there shall be any other insurance covering such loss effected by or on behalf of the Insured the Company shall not be liable for more than its rateable proportion of such loss.
6. The Insured shall ensure that the Insured Machinery is maintained in good working order and that it is not habitually or intentionally overloaded and that Government or other regulations relating to the operation and inspection of the Insured Machinery are observed. The Company's officials shall have the right at all reasonable times to inspect and examine any Insured Machinery. Dismantling and reassembling in connection with any examination shall be carried out by the Insured on such date or dates as the Company and the Insured shall mutually agree for the making of such examinations.
7. In the event of an Accident to any Insured Machinery likely to give rise to a claim hereunder the Company shall have the right to take over and control all necessary repairs.
8. The Company may cancel this Policy by sending ten day's notice by registered letter to the Insured at his latest known address and in such event will return to the Insured a proportionate part of the premium corresponding to the unexpired period of insurance.
9. If at any time after commencement of this insurance
 - (a) the Business be wound up or carried on by liquidator or receiver or permanently discontinued
 - (b) the Insured's interest cease otherwise than by death
 - (c) any alteration be made whereby the risk of Accident is increased
 - (d) the retention of standby or spare machinery or any other loss minimizing factors in existence when the insurance was effected be reduced, discontinued or not maintained at the Premises in an efficient working condition and available for immediate use.

This Policy shall be voided unless its continuance be admitted by endorsements signed by or on behalf of the Company.

10. All differences arising out of this Policy shall be referred to the arbitration of some person to be appointed by both parties or if they cannot agree upon a single Arbitrator to the decision of two Arbitrators one to be appointed in writing by the Arbitrators before entering on the reference. The Umpire shall sit with the Arbitrators and preside at their meetings and the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Company. If the Company shall disclaim liability to the Insured or his personal representatives for any claim hereunder and if such claim shall not within twelve calendar months from the date of such disclaimer have been referred to Arbitrator under the provisions herein contained then the claim shall for all purposes be deemed to have been abandoned and shall not thereafter be recoverable hereunder.

11. The due observance and fulfillment of the terms and conditions contained in this Policy or endorsed hereon in so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured and the truth of the statements and answers in the proposal and declaration shall be conditions precedent to any liability of the Company to make any payment under the Policy.

SPECIFICATIONS REFERRED TO IN THE POLICY

The Insurance under Item No. 1 is limited to loss of Gross Profit due to Reduction in Turnover and Increase in Cost of Working and the amount payable as indemnity thereunder shall be:-

(a) IN RESPECT OF REDUCTION IN TURNOVER: the sum produced by applying the Rate of Gross Profit to the amount by which the Turnover during the Indemnity Period shall, in consequence of the Accident, fall short of the Standard Turnover,

(b) IN RESPECT OF INCREASE IN COST OF WORKING: the additional expenditure necessarily and reasonably incurred for the sole purpose of avoiding or diminishing the reduction in Turnover which but for that expenditure would have taken place during the Indemnity Period in consequence of the Accident, but not exceeding the sum produced by applying the Rate of Gross Profit to the amount of the reduction thereby avoided, less any sum saved during the Indemnity Period in respect of such of the charges and expenses of the Business insured under this Item as may cease or be reduced in consequence of the Accident,

Provided that if the Sum Insured by this Item be less than the sum produced by applying the Rate of Gross Profit to the Annual Turnover, the amount payable shall be proportionately reduced.

DEFINITIONS

Accident shall mean sudden and unforeseen damage to the Machinery described in the Schedule from ANY ACCIDENTAL CAUSE not hereinafter excepted.

GROSS PROFIT.-The amount by which the sum of the value of the Turnover and the value of the Closing Stock shall exceed the sum of the value of Opening Stock and the amount of the specified Working Expenses. The values of the Opening and Closing Stocks shall be arrived at in accordance with the Insured's normal accountancy methods, due provision being made for depreciation.

SPECIFIED WORKING EXPENSES (which are not insured by this Policy)

RATE OF GROSS PROFIT. - The rate or Gross Profit earned on the Turnover during the financial year immediately before the date of the Accident )to which such adjustments shall be made as )may be necessary to provide for the trend of )the Business and variations in or special )circumstances affecting the Business either )before or after the Accident or which would )have affected the Business had the Accident

)not occurred so that the figures thus adjusted )shall represent as nearly as may reasonably )practicable the results which but for the )accident would have been obtained during )the relative period after the Accident.

ANNUAL TURNOVER.- The Turnover during the twelve months immediately before the date of the Accident

STANDARD TURNOVER. - The Turnover during that period immediately before the date of the Accident which corresponds with the Indemnity Period.

MEMO. 1 - If during the Indemnity Period goods shall be sold or services shall be rendered elsewhere than at the Premises for the benefit of the Business either by the Insured or by others on his behalf the money paid or payable in respect of such sales or services shall be brought into account in arriving at the Turnover during the Indemnity Period.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. This Policy will be governed by the laws of Zimbabwe and the Courts therein shall have sole jurisdiction to the exclusion of the Courts of any other country.
2. This Policy is not assignable. Benefit shall be payable only to the Policyholder or their legal personal representative whose receipt shall effectually discharge The Company.
3. This Policy shall be voidable in the event of misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure by or on behalf of the Policyholder in any particular material to this Insurance.
4. The Policyholder shall give notice to The Company within 90 days of any material change in the Business.
5. If any difference shall arise as to the amount to be paid under this Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the statutory provisions in that behalf for the time being in force in Zimbabwe and the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any liability for The Company to make any payment under this Policy

6.. Wage Declaration and Basis of Claim Settlement

It is a condition of this policy that the Insured shall declare to the Insurers each and every increase in the salaries and wages of its employees and pay the additional premium due for such increase. Such declaration to be made within 30 days from the end of the month of such salary and wage increase being implemented.

It is further declared and agreed that for any accident or injury for which compensation is payable in terms of this policy the basis of any claim settlement will be as follows

1. If the accident or injury takes place in a period in which a declaration has been made by the Insured then this declaration will be used to calculate any compensation payable.
2. If the accident or injury takes place in a period in which no declaration has been made then the last declaration on record will be used to calculate any compensation payable.
3. The Company or the Policyholder may cancel this Policy by giving 30 days notice in writing to the other party. in such event the Policyholder shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of premium subject to any minimum premium or adjustable premium provisions.
4. Cover in respect of the Policyholder shall terminate on the premium due date, should the Policyholder fail to pay the required premium.
5. All cover in respect of an Insured Person shall cease on the renewal date following such Insured Persons 70th birthday
6. The onus shall always be upon the Policyholder to insure, correctly admit and pay any tax liability in consideration of any benefits being paid that may in any form whatsoever, incur taxes of any nature.
7. All sums of money mentioned in this Policy are in the currency of Zimbabwe.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS1. Claims Procedure –

Notice must be given to The Company in writing within 30 days of any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy.

In no case whatever shall The Company be liable under this Policy after the expiration of 12 months from any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy unless the claim is the subject of pending action or arbitration

In the event of Death The Company shall have the right to have a post mortem examination of the body.

All certificates, information and evidence required by The Company shall be furnished in the form prescribed and without expense to The Company and must be submitted to The Company within 90 days following notification.

The Insured Person shall submit to medical examination on behalf of and at the expense of The Company as often as shall be required in connection with any claim.

Qualified medical advice shall be sought and followed promptly on the occurrence of any Bodily Injury and The Company shall not be liable for that part of any claim which in the opinion of its medical adviser arises from the unreasonable or willful neglect or failure of an Insured Person to seek and remain under the care of a qualified Medical Practitioner.

In the event of The Company disclaiming liability in respect of any claim and an action or suit not being commenced within twelve months after such disclaimer or, in the case of an arbitration taking place within twelve months after the arbitrator shall have made his award, all benefit under this Policy in respect of such claim shall be forfeited.

2. If any claim under this Policy be in any respect fraudulent or intentionally exaggerated or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by the Insured Person or anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit which would have been payable (even if already due) hereunder shall be forfeited from the date of such fraud.
3. No sum payable under this Policy shall carry interest under any circumstances.
4. No Insured Person shall be entitled to recover benefits under this Policy exceeding more than 100 % of the compensation in respect of any one benefit and upon accrual of an Insured Person's right to such percentages all further rights of the Insured Person in respect of such benefit shall cease.
5. The Company's liability in respect of any one person shall be limited to the amount stated in the General Schedule under Principal Sum for all compensation arising out of any one accident and/or occurrence.
6. The Company shall not be liable under this Policy for more than the amount stated in the General Schedule under Accumulation limit in respect of any one accident and/or occurrence or number of accidents and/or occurrences arising from one source or cause.
7. The Company shall not be liable under this Policy for more than the amount stated in the General Schedule under Aircraft Accumulation limit in respect of any one accident and/or occurrence or number of accidents and/or occurrences arising from one source or cause.
9. In the event that an Insured Person dies as a direct result of a road traffic accident of which the cause or the consequence could be a heart attack, The Company will consider the accident as an insured event.

 - (iv) in respect of Insurance Clause 1, any claim by an employee for a labour practices violation.
- 3.4 arising out of, based upon, attributable to, or in any way involving, directly or indirectly;
- a) the actual, alleged, imminent or threatened discharge, dispersal, seepage, release or escape of pollutants, or
 - b) any direction or request to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralise pollutants, nuclear material or nuclear waste.
- 3.5 arising out of, based upon or attributable to any act or omission in the insured's capacity as a director or officer of any entity other than the company, or by reason of the insured's status as a director, officer or employee of the other entity, other than as provided in Extension 4.2.
- 3.6 for bodily injury, sickness, disease, death, psychiatric injury or emotional distress of any person, or damage to or destruction of any tangible property, including loss of use thereof; provided, however, that any claim for psychiatric injury shall not be excluded with respect to Insuring Clause 1.
- 3.7 arising out of, based upon or attributable to any actual or alleged breach of contract of employment or contractual liability of the company under any express contract or agreement; provided, however, that with respect to an employment practice claim, this exclusion shall not apply to the extent the company would have had such liability even in the absence of such contract or agreement.
- 3.8 arising out of, based upon or attributable to any obligation pursuant to any workers' compensation, disability benefits, redundancy or unemployment benefits or compensation, unemployment insurance, retirement benefits, social security benefits or any similar law or obligation whatsoever;
- 3.9 with respect to Insuring Clause 3 only:
- (i) for any actual or alleged plagiarism, misappropriation, infringement or violation of copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or any other intellectual property rights;
 - (ii) for any actual or alleged violation or any law, whether statutory, regulatory or common law, with respect to any of the following activities: anti-trust, business competition, unfair trade practices or unlawful interference in another's business or contractual relationships;
 - (iii) for rendering or failure to render any service or advice to a customer or client of the insured;
 - (iv) seeking fines or penalties or non-monetary relief against the company;
- 3.10 directly or indirectly based upon, attributable to or in any way involving war, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power or confiscation or nationalisation or requisition of or damage to any property by or under the valid or invalid order of any legitimate or illegitimate government.
- 3.11 arising out of any legal action or litigation brought in a court outside of the Republic of Zimbabwe or any legal action or litigation brought in a Zimbabwe court to enforce a judgement handed down in a court outside of Zimbabwe whether by way of reciprocal agreement or otherwise.

- 3.12 directly or indirectly arising out of, or in connection with:
- a) any public or private issue of shares, preference shares (redeemable or otherwise), debentures of whatever kind, promissory notes or any other form of negotiable or non-negotiable security for the raising of capital by equity, debt or any other means;
 - b) the issue of any prospectus or similar document or the making of any written or oral representation, in connection with (a) above;
- 3.13 brought by, at the instigation of, or on behalf of;
- a) any past or present shareholder or stockholder who had or has direct or indirect ownership of or control over 15% or more of the voting shares or rights of the company, or
 - b) any past or present shareholder or stockholder who had or has direct or indirect ownership of or control over 15% or more of the voting shares or rights of any outside entity to which an outside directorship applies.
- 3.14 arising out of, based upon or attributable to or in any way connected with provision of or failure to perform professional services of any kind or alleged breach of duty owed in a professional capacity. Provided however, that this Exception shall not apply to coverage provided under Insuring Clause 2.
- 3.15 for failure to fund a fund in accordance with the fund document or instrument of the failure to collect contributions owed to the fund.
- 3.16 arising from any act or series of acts committed outside of Zimbabwe;
- 3.17 by a past, present or prospective director of the company alleging a labour practice violation:
- a) where the director is not an employee;
 - b) where the director is making the claim in a capacity other than that of an employee;
 - c) to the extent that, where the director makes a claim partly in his or her capacity as an employee and partly in another capacity, the loss does not arise out of, is not based upon or is not attributable to the director's capacity as an employee.
- 3.18 arises from, is based upon or attributable to, directly or indirectly, the insolvency, liquidation, receivership, bankruptcy or administration of the company – whether provisional or final and whether voluntary or involuntary.
- 3.19 arising out of directly or indirectly, based upon or attributable to or in any way involving war, invasion, act of foreign enemy, hostilities or warlike operations (whether war has been declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, civil commotion assuming the proportion of or amounting to a popular uprising, military or usurped power, martial law, riot or the act of any lawfully constituted authority; or terrorism.
- 3.20 with respect to Insuring Clause 3 only:
- (i) for any actual or alleged plagiarism, misappropriation, infringement or violation of copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or any other intellectual property rights;
 - (ii) for any actual or alleged violation or any law, whether statutory, regulatory or common law, with respect to any of the following activities: anti-trust, business competition, unfair trade practices or unlawful interference in another's business or contractual relationships;
 - (iii) for rendering or failure to render any service or advice to a customer or client of the insured;
 - (v) seeking fines or penalties or non-monetary relief against the company;

4. EXTENSIONS

Subject to all provisions, terms, exclusions and conditions of this policy cover is extended as outlined below. If one or more of the extensions under this policy is deleted or replaced or not required by the policyholder, there shall be no reduction in the premium payable as specified under Item 5 of the Schedule. The total of all payments made under these extensions shall be part of and not in addition to the limit of liability. The extensions are also subject to the retention.

4.1 Representation at Inquiries

The insurer will pay on behalf of the insured persons all legal costs incurred by reason of the insured persons attending an inquiry provided that the notice requiring the insured persons to attend the inquiry is first received by the insured persons during the policy period and notice is given to the insurer during the policy period.

4.2 Outside Directorships Cover

The insurer will pay on behalf of the insured persons all loss which the insured persons are legally liable to pay by reason of any claim first made against them individually or collectively during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period for a wrongful act in their capacity as an outside director, provided always that;

- (a) the cover provided under this Extension applies in excess of any indemnity provided to the insured persons by the outside entity in respect of any such claim.
- (b) the cover provided under this Extension applies in excess of the cover provided by any outside entity insurance policies including those specified by Endorsement to this policy in respect of any such claim, including any policies which are a renewal or replacement of those policies.
- (c) If the outside entity has insurance which covers a claim which is also covered under this Extension and that other insurance is provided by the insurer, or by any other member company of the Zimnat Lion Insurance Company, then the maximum amount payable by AIG under both policies will not exceed the limit of liability of the policy which has the highest limit of liability.
- (e) The insurer is not liable to make any payment for loss in connection with any claim made against an outside director which is made by the outside entity or by any directors or officers of the outside entity or by any shareholder of the outside entity holding more than 15% of the voting share capital of the outside entity.
The restrictions in cover specified in (d) above do not apply to any claim made against an outside director:
 - (i) alleging a labour practice violation;
 - (ii) for contribution or indemnity by another director or officer of the outside entity, provided the claim results directly from another claim which would be covered under this Extension if it was made directly against the outside director.
 - (iii) made in the name of the outside entity by any legally authorised individual or entity, other than the outside entity itself, where the claimant acts without any express or tacit consent, acquiescence, concurrence, enticement or co-operation from the outside entity, from the company or from any insured person.

4.3 Discovery Period

- (a) If the insurer declines to offer renewal terms at the end of the policy period, then the policyholder may purchase a discovery period of 12 months following the end of the policy period for an additional premium of 100% of the annual premium. To purchase this discovery period the policyholder must request its purchase in writing within 15 days following the end of the policy period and must pay the additional premium within 30 days following the end of the policy period.
- (b) If a transaction takes place the policyholder does not have the right to purchase the discovery period specified in (a) above, however, the policyholder does have the right, within 30 days of the end of the policy period, to request an offer from the insurer of a discovery period for up to seventy two (72) months. The insurer may, but is not obliged to, offer a discovery period on such terms and conditions as the insurer may decide in its discretion.

If a discovery period is purchased it is non-cancellable and the additional premium is non-refundable.

No discovery period is available in the event that this policy is cancelled by the insurer.

4.4 Retired Individual Insureds

If the policyholder does not renew or replace this policy with any other policy affording similar coverage issued by the insurer or any other insurer and a discovery period is not purchased under Extension 4.3, then a run-off period of 12 months after the date of such non-renewal will be provided under this policy. During this run-off period written notice may be given to the insurer of any claim first made against any insured person who retired before the date of non-renewal provided the claim arises from a wrongful act of the insured and would otherwise be covered by this policy.

4.5 Heirs, Estates and Legal Representatives

The insurer will pay for loss in respect of a claim first made against the estates, heirs, legal representatives or assigns of any deceased, incompetent, insolvent or bankrupt insured person during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period provided such claim:

- (a) is made against them solely because of their status as estates, heirs, legal representatives or assigns of that deceased, incompetent, insolvent or bankrupt insured person; and
- (b) results directly from a claim made against that insured person which is covered under this policy.

4.6 Joint Property Liability

The insurer will pay for loss in respect of a claim first made against the lawful spouse of an insured person during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period provided such claim:

- (a) is made solely because of his or her status as the lawful spouse of that insured person; and
- (b) results directly from a claim made against that insured person which is covered under this policy; and
- (c) seeks damages recoverable from marital community property, or from property jointly held by that insured person and the lawful spouse, or from property transferred from that insured person to the lawful spouse.

4.7 New Subsidiaries

Cover under this policy is extended to any subsidiary which the policyholder acquires or creates after the inception date of this policy provided that the subsidiary:

- (i) has total gross assets which are less than the amount specified in Item 7 of the Schedule
- (ii) does not have a listing of any of its securities on any exchange.

If a newly acquired or created subsidiary fails to meet conditions (i) and (ii) above the policyholder may request an extension of this policy for such subsidiary provided that the policyholder shall give the insurer sufficient details to permit the insurer to assess and evaluate the insurer's potential increase in exposure. The insurer shall be entitled to amend the policy terms and conditions, during the policy period, including by the charging of a reasonable additional premium.

Unless otherwise agreed, cover as is afforded to the directors, officers or employees of any subsidiary by virtue of this extension shall only apply for wrongful act(s) committed while such company is or was a subsidiary of the policyholder.

5 GENERAL PROVISIONS5.1 Representation

In granting cover to any one insured, the insurer has relied upon the material statements and particulars in the proposal together with its attachments and other information supplied. These statements, attachments and information are the basis of cover and shall be considered incorporated into and constituting part of this policy.

5.2 Changes in Risk During Policy Period

If during the policy period a transaction takes place, then the cover provided under this policy is amended to apply only to wrongful act(s) committed or allegedly committed prior to the effective date of the transaction.

The policyholder shall give the insurer written notice of the transaction as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days after the effective date of the transaction.

5.3 Limit of Liability

The total aggregate limit of the insurer's liability to the insured during any policy period for all loss shall not exceed the limit of liability stated in the Schedule for all Insuring Clauses combined. Legal costs are part of and not in addition to the limit of liability.

The limit of liability for the discovery period specified in Extension 5 shall be part of and not in addition to the limit of liability for the policy period.

Regardless of the number of years this policy shall continue in force and irrespective that it is or may be renewed and regardless of the number of premiums paid, the limits of liability as specified in the policy schedules shall not accumulate from year to year or from policy period to policy period.

If two or more policies of insurance issued by the insurer or any other member company of Zimnat Lion Insurance Company apply to the same claim for which the insured persons are liable, the maximum amount payable by Zimnat Lion Insurance Company under all such policies shall not exceed the Limit of Liability of that policy referred to above which has the highest applicable Limit of Liability. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to increase the Limit of Liability of this policy.

5.4 Retention

The insurer will only pay for that amount of any loss which is in excess of the Retention. The Retention is to be borne by the insured and remains uninsured.

5.5 How to Give Notice and Report a Claima) Notification of Claims Under Insuring Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4

The insured shall as a condition precedent to the obligations of the insurer under this policy give written notice to the insurer of any claim made against the insured as soon as practicable within the policy period or the discovery period if applicable.

If during the policy period or during the discovery period written notice of a claim against an insured is given to the insurer pursuant to the terms and conditions of this policy, then any claim arising out of, based upon or attributable to the facts alleged in the claim previously notified to the insurer or alleging a single wrongful act which is the same as or related to any wrongful act alleged in the previously notified claim, shall be considered made against the insured and reported to the insurer at the time the first notice was given.

If, during the policy period or the discovery period, the insured becomes aware of any fact or circumstance that may result in a claim being made against the insured, and the insured gives notice in writing to the insurer of the fact or circumstance together with reasons for anticipating a claim with full particulars as to dates and persons involved, then any claim which is subsequently made against an insured and reported in writing to the insurer arising out of, based upon or attributable to that fact or circumstances or alleging a single wrongful act alleged or contained in such fact or circumstance, shall be considered made against the insured and reported to the insurer at the time the notice of fact or circumstance was first given.

All notifications of claim and circumstance must be in writing and properly addressed to the insurer at the following address:

ZIMNAT LION INSURANCE COMPANY
P O Box CY 115
Causeway
Harare

If posted the date of posting shall constitute the date that notice was given, and proof of posting shall be sufficient proof of notice.

5.6 How Defence Will Be Conducted

In respect of Insuring Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4, the insurer does not assume any duty to defend any claim brought against the insured that is covered by this policy. The insured shall defend and contest any claim made against them, however the insurer is entitled to effectively associate with the insured in defence of any claim that appears likely to involve them including but not limited to effectively associating in the negotiation of any settlement. As a condition precedent to insurer's liability for loss arising out of the claim the insured shall not, without the prior written consent of the insurer, admit liability or assume any liability for or settle any claim or incur any legal costs. Only those settlements and legal costs to which the insurer has given prior written consent shall be recoverable as loss under this policy. The insurer's consent shall not to be unreasonably withheld provided that the insurer is entitled to effectively associate in the defence and negotiation of any settlement of any claim in order to reach a decision as to reasonableness.

The insurer shall have the right to make investigation, conduct negotiations and, with the written consent of the insured, settle any claim, on such terms and in such manner as the insurer deems expedient. If the insured refuses to consent to any settlement under Insuring Clauses 1, 2 3 or 4 which is recommended by the insurer and acceptable to the claimant, the insurer's liability for all loss on account of that claim shall not exceed the amount for which the claim could have been settled if the insurer's recommendation had been consented to, plus legal costs incurred up to the date of the refusal

5.7 Subrogation

In the event of payment under this policy in respect of a claim, the insurer shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the insured's rights of recovery in respect of payment and shall be entitled to pursue and enforce such rights in the name of the insured who shall provide the insurer with all reasonable assistance and co-operation including the execution of all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure any rights including the execution of any documents necessary to enable the insurer effectively to bring suit in the name of the insured whether such acts shall be or become necessary before or after payment by the insurer. The insured shall do nothing to prejudice those rights. Any amount recovered in excess of the insurer's total payment shall be restored to the insured less the cost to the insurer of such recovery. In no event however, shall the insurer exercise its rights of subrogation against an individual insured under this policy unless such individual insured has been convicted of a deliberate criminal, dishonest, fraudulent or malicious acts by an individual insured, or obtained any profit or advantage to which such individual insured was not legally entitled.

5.8 Other Insurance

Unless otherwise required by law, any insurance as is provided under this policy shall apply only as specifically excess over any other valid and collectible insurance, any applicable liability insurance, labour practice liability insurance, trustee liability insurance, company management liability insurance, personal management liability insurance, crisis containment insurance, self-insurance programme or any equivalent policy irrespective of the amount thereof and whether or not such policy is actually maintained by the insured.

5.9 Notice and Authority

The policyholder warrants that it is duly authorised to act on behalf of all its subsidiaries and all insured persons with respect to the exercise of all their rights and the discharge or all their duties in respect of this policy, including but not limited to;

- (a) negotiating the terms and conditions of cover;
- (b) binding cover;
- (c) the notification of claims;
- (d) the giving and receiving of any notice of cancellation;
- (e) the payment of premium and the receipt of any refund of premium that may become due;
- (f) the payment of the retention;
- (g) the negotiation and receipt of any Endorsement;
- (h) the election of any right to a discovery period, or
- (i) the appointment of solicitors to defend a claim;
- (j) the receipt of all amounts payable by the insurer under the policy.

5.10 Assignment

This policy and any rights hereunder cannot be assigned without prior written consent of the insurer.

5.11 Jurisdiction and Governing Law

Any interpretation of this policy relating to its construction, validity or operation shall be made in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Zimbabwe. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of Zimbabwe.

5.12 Plurals and Titles

Headings are included for convenience only and do not affect interpretation of the policy. Words and expressions in the singular include the plural and vice versa. Words in italics have special meaning and are defined in the policy. Words that are not specifically defined in this policy have the meaning normally attributed to them.

5.13 Continuity

With respect to Insuring Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4, notwithstanding exclusion 3.2, cover is provided under this policy for any claim, fact, matter or circumstance which could or should have been notified under any earlier policy. Provided always that:

- a) the claim, fact, matter or circumstance could and should have been notified after the continuity date of this policy; and
- b) the cover provided by this General Provision shall be in accordance with the provisions of the policy under which the claim, fact, matter or circumstance could or should have been notified.

5.14 Cancellation

This policy may be cancelled as follows:

- (i) by the insurer for non-payment of premium;
- (ii) by the policyholder immediately upon the insurer's receipt of written notice. In such case, the insurer shall refund any unearned premium calculated at short-rate of the annual premium except in the event of a loss having been reported prior to the date of cancellation whereby no refund shall be due;
- (iii) by the insurer 30 days after receipt by the insured of written notice. In such case, the insurer shall refund any unearned premium calculated at pro-rata of the annual premium;
- (iv) by the insurer following the issue of written notice to the address specified in item 1 of the Schedule in respect of the policyholder or any insured or any employee of any insured. Cancellation shall apply 30 days following the issue of such notice;
- (v) by mutual agreement between the insurer and the policyholder.

5.15 Confidentiality

The insured persons and the company must take all reasonable efforts not to disclose the existence of this policy to any person except to professional advisers or as required by law or court order and shall only state within the company's annual report that the company has agreed, or otherwise, to pay a premium for this policy but shall not publish the nature of the liability covered by this policy, the name of the insurer, the limit of liability or the Premium paid for this policy.

5.16 Policy Validity

This policy is not binding upon the insurer unless it is signed on the Schedule by an authorised representative of the insurer.

5.17 Severability

If any of the provisions of this policy is held to be unlawful or unenforceable, that particular provision will be severable from the remaining terms which will remain valid and enforceable.

5.18 Settlement of Disputes Arising Under the Policy

Should a dispute arise as to whether any insured person should be required to contest any legal proceedings then the insurer agrees to the appointment, at the insured person's request, of a Senior Counsel (to be mutually agreed upon by the insured person and the insurer, or in the absence of mutual agreement to be appointed by the President of the Law Society, or equivalent organisation, in the jurisdiction in which the legal proceedings were first served) to advise whether or not such proceedings should be contested. The Senior Counsel shall take into consideration all relevant issues including the economics of the matter, the damages and costs which are likely to be recovered by the plaintiff, the likely costs of defence and the prospects of the insured person successfully defending the action. The costs of the Senior Counsel's opinion shall be borne by the insurer.

If the Senior Counsel advises that, having regard to all the circumstances, the matter should not be contested but should be settled, provided that settlement can be achieved within certain limits which in the Senior Counsel's opinion are reasonable, then the insured person shall not object to or oppose any such settlement and shall co-operate with the insurer to achieve the settlement in accordance with this policy.

5.19 Allocation

In the event that any claim involves both covered matters and matters not covered under this policy, a fair and proper allocation of any defence costs, judgments and/or settlements shall be made between the insured and the insurer taking into account the relative legal and financial exposures attributable to covered matters and matters not covered under this policy.

5.20 Non-Accumulation

Any payment provided under the terms of this policy shall be non-cumulative with any coverage provided under any other policy issued by any member company of the American International Group.

5.21 Fraudulent Claims

If the insured shall give notice or make any claim for any loss under this policy knowing it to be false or fraudulent, as regards amount or otherwise and whether in whole or in part, such loss shall be excluded from cover under the policy and the insurer reserves the right to void this policy in its entirety, and in such case all losses and all claims under it shall be forfeited.
