SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

1. Benefit shall not be payable in respect of an Insured Person:-
 - a) for Permanent Total Disablement except on proof satisfactory to The Company that the disablement will in all probability continue for the remainder of an Insured Person's life;
 - b) for more than 100% of the Sum Insured when more than one injury occurs arising out of the same Accident;
 - c) under more than one category for more than 100% of the Sum Insured as stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

The Benefit payable shall be the highest within the appropriate category.
2. Should the Insured Person be Permanently Disabled as a result of an Accident, a Benefit (lump sum) will be paid and all cover in respect of such Insured Person shall cease.
3. The Benefit will be subject to the Scale of Benefits as noted herein.
4. The degree of Permanent Disablement will be determined immediately it is established or as soon as it can reasonably be assumed that there will be no further improvement or worsening of the Insured Person's condition in consequence of the Accident, but not later than 24 months from the Date of Loss .
5. Should the consequences of an Accident be aggravated owing to an Insured Persons existing ailment, infirmity or other abnormal physical or mental condition, determination of the benefit will be based on the consequences the Accident would have had had such defects not existed. The foregoing shall not apply, however, if such circumstances are a consequence of an earlier accident to the Insured Person, for which benefit has been or still has to be paid under the insurance.
6. If the Insured Persons existing Permanent Disablement is aggravated by an Accident, the benefit may be claimed equivalent only to a percentage of the amount insured for Permanent Disablement pro rata to the difference in the degree of Permanent Disablement before and after the Accident. The degree of disablement before the Accident will be determined in accordance with specific proviso 4.
7. In the event of an Insured Person dying of natural causes prior to the final disability assessment relating to an insured accident The Company will pay what reasonably would have had to be paid for such permanent disability in accordance with specific provisos 1, 2 and 3 above.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. This Policy will be governed by the laws of Zimbabwe and the Courts therein shall have sole jurisdiction to the exclusion of the Courts of any other country.
2. This Policy is not assignable. Benefit shall be payable only to the Policyholder or their legal personal representative whose receipt shall effectually discharge The Company.
3. This Policy shall be voidable in the event of misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure by or on behalf of the Policyholder in any particular material to this Insurance.
4. The Policyholder shall give notice to The Company within 90 days of any material change in the Business.
5. If any difference shall arise as to the amount to be paid under this Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the statutory provisions in that behalf for the time being in force in Zimbabwe and the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any liability for The Company to make any payment under this Policy

6.. Wage Declaration and Basis of Claim Settlement

It is a condition of this policy that the Insured shall declare to the Insurers each and every increase in the salaries and wages of its employees and pay the additional premium due for such increase. Such declaration to be made within 30 days from the end of the month of such salary and wage increase being implemented.

It is further declared and agreed that for any accident or injury for which compensation is payable in terms of this policy the basis of any claim settlement will be as follows

1. If the accident or injury takes place in a period in which a declaration has been made by the Insured then this declaration will be used to calculate any compensation payable.
 2. If the accident or injury takes place in a period in which no declaration has been made then the last declaration on record will be used to calculate any compensation payable.
7. The Company or the Policyholder may cancel this Policy by giving 30 days notice in writing to the other party. In such event the Policyholder shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of premium subject to any minimum premium or adjustable premium provisions.
8. Cover in respect of the Policyholder shall terminate on the premium due date, should the Policyholder fail to pay the required premium.
9. All cover in respect of an Insured Person shall cease on the renewal date following such Insured Persons 70th birthday.
10. The onus shall always be upon the Policyholder to insure, correctly admit and pay any tax liability in consideration of any benefits being paid that may in any form whatsoever, incur taxes of any nature.
11. All sums of money mentioned in this Policy are in the currency of Zimbabwe.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS

1. Claims Procedure –

Notice must be given to The Company in writing within 30 days of any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy.

In no case whatever shall The Company be liable under this Policy after the expiration of 12 months from any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy unless the claim is the subject of pending action or arbitration

In the event of Death The Company shall have the right to have a post mortem examination of the body.

All certificates, information and evidence required by The Company shall be furnished in the form prescribed and without expense to The Company and must be submitted to The Company within 90 days following notification.

The Insured Person shall submit to medical examination on behalf of and at the expense of The Company as often as shall be required in connection with any claim.

Qualified medical advice shall be sought and followed promptly on the occurrence of any Bodily Injury and The Company shall not be liable for that part of any claim which in the opinion of its medical adviser arises from the unreasonable or willful neglect or failure of an Insured Person to seek and remain under the care of a qualified Medical Practitioner.

In the event of The Company disclaiming liability in respect of any claim and an action or suit not being commenced within twelve months after such disclaimer or, in the case of an arbitration taking place within twelve months after the arbitrator shall have made his award, all benefit under this Policy in respect of such claim shall be forfeited.

2. If any claim under this Policy be in any respect fraudulent or intentionally exaggerated or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by the Insured Person or anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit which would have been payable (even if already due) hereunder shall be forfeited from the date of such fraud.

3. No sum payable under this Policy shall carry interest under any circumstances.

4. No Insured Person shall be entitled to recover benefits under this Policy exceeding more than 100 % of the compensation in respect of any one benefit and upon accrual of an Insured Person's right to such percentages all further rights of the Insured Person in respect of such benefit shall cease.

5. The Company's liability in respect of any one person shall be limited to the amount stated in the General Schedule under Principal Sum for all compensation arising out of any one accident and/or occurrence.

6. The Company shall not be liable under this Policy for more than the amount stated in the General Schedule under Accumulation limit in respect of any one accident and/or occurrence or number of accidents and/or occurrences arising from one source or cause.

7. The Company shall not be liable under this Policy for more than the amount stated in the General Schedule under Aircraft Accumulation limit in respect of any one accident and/or occurrence or number of accidents and/or occurrences arising from one source or cause.

9. In the event that an Insured Person dies as a direct result of a road traffic accident of which the cause or the consequence could be a heart attack, The Company will consider the accident as an insured event.
