Executive Summary

The non-life industry continued to experience environmental as well as other sector-specific challenges. Underlined by the bull-run on the stock market and product innovations, however, the sector showed signs of resilience and above-inflation growth rates in both premium income and balance sheet sizes.

Non-life insurers reported total gross premium written (GPW) amounting to $169.79 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 compared to $155.31 million reported during the same period in 2016 resulting in a 9.32% increase.

Insurance brokers placed $72.34 million or 42.6% of total gross premiums for non-life insurers for the nine months ended 30 September 2017. This was a 2.76% increase from the $70.46 million written for the nine months ended 30 September 2016.

Partially indicating slight improvements in risk retention by direct insurers, business written by reinsurers decreased by 2.20% from $81.52 million written for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to $79.73 million for the current reporting period.

Reinsurance brokers contributed 73.28% of the reinsurer's total gross premiums, writing $58.43 million premiums.

Out of the twenty operational insurers, five insurers and one reinsurer reported capital positions which were non-compliant with Statutory instrument 95 of 2017 with regards to the regulatory minimum capital requirements of $2.5 million and $5 million for the period under review.

The asset base for the insurance industry increased from $188.01 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to $235.35 million for the comparative period in 2017.

The industry average prescribed assets ratios for non-life insurers and reinsurers were 11.21% and 11.01% respectively for the period 30 September 2017, compared to the minimum requirement of 5%, demonstrating full compliance with the minimum regulatory requirements on average.

The retention ratio, an indication of risk appetite, for insurers averaged 61.32% as at 30 September 2017, increasing from the 59.36% average for the comparative period in 2016. Reinsurers reported a decrease in the retention ratio from 65.08% to 62.26% reported for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 and 30 September 2017 respectively.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2017, the profit after tax for non-life insurers was $35.89 million, a 264.29% increase from $9.85 million reported for the comparative period in 2016.

On the other hand, non-life reinsurers reported a profit after tax of $11.51 million compared to $5.53 million for the same period in 2016.

SECTION A

2. SHORT-TERM (NON-LIFE) INSURANCE COMPANIES

Please note that the analysis of performance of the non-life insurance sector does not include statistics for companies which were under suspension as at the reporting date. Appendix 1A-C has detailed statistics for all the non-life insurers.

2.1. Performance in Terms of Business Written

Total Gross Premium Written (GPW) by non-life insurers amounted to $169.79 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 reflecting a 9.32% increase from $155.31 million reported for the comparative period in 2016. The increase in total GPW was due to a growth in motor insurance business which contributed 45.51% of business written from the previous 43.92%. This is partially attributable to reduced leakages to unregistered insurers due to the introduction of automation in motor insurance licensing. Figure 1 below shows the trend in volume of the business generated by non-life insurers for the nine months ended 30 September of each year from 2011 to 2017.

2.2. Gross Premium Written by Class of Business

The distribution of business written in terms of GPW remained skewed towards motor and fire insurance with the two classes accounting for 63.54% of the total business written during the period under review. Table 2 below shows the distribution of gross premiums written for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 and the comparative period in 2016.

2.3. Capitalization

For the period under review, fourteen out of twenty insurers were compliant with the minimum capital level of $2.5 million whilst six insurers reported capital levels below the required minimum in line with Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017.

The reported capital positions, however, do not currently account for non-admissible assets as stipulated in Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017. The most common non-permissible assets were deferred acquisition cost, related party exposures and premium debtors in excess of 90 days. Players are required to fully implement the Statutory Instrument but approach the Commission with relevant compliance plans where applicable. (See Appendix 1B for the composition of each insurer's asset base). The reported capital positions for non-life insurers is shown in table 3 below.

Key:

	The insurer reported a capital position that was above the requirement of $2.5 million.
	The insurer reported a capital position which was below $2.5 million.

2.4. Asset Quality

Total assets for non-life insurers grew from $188.01 million as at 30 September 2016 to $235.35 million in the comparative period in 2017. This considerable growth in total assets was mainly due to the bull-run in the equities market and deferred acquisition costs which amounted to $57.58 million.

Given the susceptibility of near-cash assets to inflationary pressure, the non-life insurance industry reported a decrease of 32% in money market investments from $29.78 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to $20.25 million in the comparative period in 2017.

The asset base for non-life insurers is shown in Figure 3 below. The Commission notes with concern the significant proportions of assets which were tied up in fixed assets and premium debtors. These assets may not be readily available to meet policyholder obligations as and when they fall due. The Commission therefore urges non-life insurers to come up with strategies that will reduce assets in such classes. However, total assets summed up of cash and cash equivalents, prescribed assets and equities which can easily match non-life insurance liabilities accounted for 39.43% as at 30 September 2017.

NB: Technical assets refer to reinsurers' share of outstanding claims and deferred acquisition costs.

The industry average prescribed assets ratio as at 30 September 2017 was 11.21% which was compliant with the minimum requirement of 5%, although a total of nine (9) insurers were not compliant with the minimum prescribed assets ratio. Appendix 1C shows other indicators of asset quality.

2.5. Reinsurance

The industry average retention ratio rose from 59.36% as at 30 September 2016 to 61.32% for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 partly demonstrating an improvement in risk appetite among the non-life insurance industry.

The non-life insurance industry reported a slight slowdown in reinsurance premium remittances as shown by the increase in the average reinsurance creditors to reinsurance premium ratio from 27.94% for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to 30.12% for the nine months ended 30 September 2017.

It is important for insurers to settle their reinsurance premiums timeously as non-remittance of reinsurance premiums compromises reinsurance arrangements thereby heightening the insurer's exposure to underwriting risk. (See Appendix 1C for more indicators).

Figure 4: Retention Ratios for Non-Life Insurance Companies

2.6. Actuarial Matters

The non-life insurance industry reported an increase in total technical liabilities from $65.91 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to $69.30 million for the period under review. The industry was considered to have adequate liquid assets to match its total technical liabilities as shown by the industry average liquid assets to total technical reserves of 106.76% reported as at 30 September 2017 although it was a decline from 129.58% reported for the nine months ended 30 September 2016. Notwithstanding the industry average liquid assets to reserves ratio recorded, some insurers reported ratios which were significantly below 100%, indicating the reserves were not backed by liquid assets. (See Appendix 1C for the performance indicators of insurance companies in terms of Actuarial matters).

2.7. Earnings

Total profit after tax reported for non-life insurers for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 was $35.89 million reflecting a remarkable increase, of 264.29%, from $9.85 million reported in the comparative period in 2016.

The increase in profit after tax was mainly due to a major increase in unrealized gains which could be a result of a surge in stock value which occurred in the second half of 2017. The major income driver for non-life insurers was underwriting which is their core business and is sustainable in the long term.

The industry average return on assets (ROA) and return on equity (ROE) improved sharply from 5.32% and 11.57% in the comparative period last year to 16.59% and 32.43% for the period under review. (For more performance indicators on profitability see Appendix 1C).

2.8. Liquidity

Total cash and near cash assets in the form of money market and short term prescribed assets decreased from $67.78 million as at 30 September 2016 to $61.16 million as at 30 September 2017. This is evidenced by the decrease in the acid test ratio from 80.56% to 63.95% for the nine months ended 30 September 2017. Such a movement was mainly caused by players preferring value-preserving assets such as equities at the expense of cash assets in light of price rises in the country. The acid test ratio for individual insurers as at 30 September 2017 ranged from 2.66% to 579.70% as shown in Appendix 1C.

2.9. Market Share for Non-life Insurers

Old Mutual Insurance Company, Nicoz Diamond Insurance Company and Zimnat Lion Insurance Company were the market leaders in terms of GPW with a combined market share of 43.14%. In terms of total assets Old Mutual Insurance Company, Nicoz Diamond Insurance and Alliance Insurance Company were the market leaders during the period under review with a combined market share of 48.51%. Market shares for non-life insurers are shown in Figure 5 and 6 below.

SECTION B

3. REINSURANCE COMPANIES

Please note that the figures for PTA Reinsurance Company (Zep-Re) contained in this report are only for the institution's Regional Hub Office located in Zimbabwe and not for the company as a whole. The Regional Hub Office writes business in Zimbabwe, Swaziland, Botswana, Namibia, and South Africa among others. PTA Reinsurance Company was formed under the auspices of COMESA and writes business in all COMESA member states. The Regional Hub Office is supported by the balance sheet of Zep-Re as a whole. Detailed statistics for all reinsurers are shown in Appendix 2A-C.

3.1. Performance in Terms of Business Written

Non-life reinsurers wrote business worth $79.73 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 which was below the $81.52 million reported in the comparative period of 2016. This decrease in the gross premium written of 2.20% could be due to improved retention levels by primary insurers. Figure 7 below shows the trend in volume of business written by non-reinsurers for the nine months ended 30 September of each year from 2011 to 2017.

The dominating classes of insurance business were fire and motor both of which accounted for 57.08% of the gross premiums written for the nine months ended 30 September 2017. Table 4 below shows the growth of business during the period under review in terms of business classes.

3.2. Capitalization

As at 30 September 2017, all the registered non-life reinsurers except for Colonnade Reinsurance Company and Tropical Reinsurance Company reported capital positions which were compliant with the minimum capital requirement of $5 million. It is important to note that the current reported capital levels were unverified and did not adequately discount non-permissible assets in line with latest regulations. Non-life reinsurers are required to ensure that they take measures towards compliance in terms of Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017, failure of which the Commission will take the necessary regulatory action.

The industry average solvency margin for reinsurers was 132.16% which was above the minimum regulatory requirement of 25%. Table 5 below shows the capital positions for non-life reinsurers.

Key:

	The reinsurer reported a capital position that was above the requirement of $5 million.
	The reinsurer reported a capital position which was below $5 million.

3.3. Asset Quality

Total assets for non-life reinsurers amounted to $142.47 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2017, reflecting a 1.46% increase from $140.42 million for the comparative period in 2016. As highlighted earlier, the growth in total assets was mainly due to a boom in the equities market and investment in government-approved projects which amounted to a total of $34.98 million. Figure 9 below shows the trend in total assets since 2012.

Reinsurance companies are required to re-align the architecture of their balance sheets in line with Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017. Figure 10 below shows a breakdown of total assets as at 30 September 2017.

Only one non-life reinsurer was not compliant with the minimum prescribed asset ratio as at 30 September 2017. The non-life reinsurance industry average prescribed asset ratio was 11.01% which was significantly above the minimum requirement of 5%.

3.4. Retrocession

The non-life reinsurance industry reported an increase in the industry average retention ratio from 62.26% for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to 65.08% for the nine months ended 30 September 2017. Individual reinsurers reported retention ratios ranging from 52.34% to 85.45% for the year to 30 September 2017.

The non-life reinsurers improved tremendously in terms of their remittance of premiums to retrocessionaires as evidenced by the significant decrease in the industry average retrocession creditors to retrocession premiums from 47.62% for the nine months ended 30 September 2016 to 18.15 % for the period under review. The same ratio ranged from nil to 118.93% for the period under review.

3.5. Actuarial Matters

Non-life reinsurers reported total actuarial liabilities amounting to $31.65 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2017, a decrease from $33.65 million that was reported in the comparative period in 2016.

There was a decline in the average total liquid investments to technical liabilities ratio which was 138.86% as at 30 September 2016 to 122.88% for the nine months ended 30 September 2017. Despite the decline, reinsurers still have near cash assets to sufficiently meet liabilities on demand. Appendix 2C shows the ratio of liquid assets to technical liabilities for individual reinsurers which ranged from 19.39% to 219.19%.

3.6. Earnings
