1 Economic Developments

1.1 Global and Regional Economic Outturn and Outlook

1.1.1 The International Monetary Fund (IMF) estimated global output growth of 5.9% in 2021, and a subdued projection of 4.4% in 2022 due to economic disruptions caused by the Omicron variant. The World Bank on the other hand estimated a growth of 5.5% in 2021 and 4.1% in 2022, reflecting continued Covid-19 flare-ups, and persistent supply bottlenecks.

1.1.2 The growth rates in other regions are illustrated in Table 1.

1.2.1 The domestic output growth for 2021 is estimated to reach 7.8%, reflecting a strong rebound from -5.3% registered in 2020. In 2022, the economy is projected to grow by 5.5%, underpinned by higher output in mining, manufacturing, agriculture, and construction.

1.3 Exchange Rate Developments

1.3.1 The Zimbabwe dollar depreciated against the US dollar in the fourth quarter, shedding 31.44% to close at an average of US$1: ZW$108.7. The marginal depreciation was due to high foreign exchange demand as businesses were gearing for re-stocking ahead of the festive season. Figure 1 shows the exchange rate trend since January 2021.

1.4 Inflation Developments

- 1.4.1 The annual inflation decreased to 60.7% in December 2021, down from 362.6% registered in January 2021. The month-on-month inflation spiked in June and October 2021 due to acceleration in food and non-food inflation before slowing down towards the end of 2021 on account of tight monetary policy, and fiscal policy consolidation measures. Figure 2 illustrates the inflation trend from January to December 2021.

The local bourse increased by 40.13% worth of capitalisation to close at ZW$1, 3 trillion from ZW$940.02 billion recorded in the third quarter of 2021. The level of activity on the stock exchange was driven by the demand for equities as a value-preserving asset. Table 2 shows the quarterly change in the key stock market indicators.

- 1.5.2 The VFEX registered trades worth US$114,544.74 in the fourth quarter, a decline of 75.8% when compared to US$473,336.01 recorded in the third quarter of 2021. Two mining companies, Caledonia Mining, and Bindura Nickel were listed on the VFEX during the quarter, bringing the total number of counters to four. The total market capitalisation level as at 31 December was US$259,743,936.20.

1.6 Money Market Developments - Savings Deposit Rates

- 1.6.1 During the quarter under review, the average savings deposit rates were below 20% while the annual inflation rate closed at 60.7%. Thus, in the entire quarter, the real returns on money market investments continued to be in the negative territory.

1.7 COVID-19 Updates

- 1.7.1 The total Covid-19 cases in Zimbabwe rose to 213, 258 as at 31 December 2021, from 13, 867 recorded for the corresponding period in 2020. Covid-19 related deaths increased to 5, 004 cases from 363 cases in the prior year. The national recovery rate stood at 85% and a total of 313, 515 people had been fully vaccinated by year end.

1.8 Covid-19 Impact on Insurance and Pensions Industry

- 1.8.1 In the outlook, the emergence of the new Covid-19 variants could prolong the pandemic and induce renewed economic disruptions. Meanwhile, Zimbabwe welcomes the opening up of the country's borders, as this is expected to boost economic activity and address liquidity challenges faced by the insurance and pensions industry.
- 1.8.2 The renewed economic activity is expected to improve household and business incomes whose transmission effect will result in improved premium payments and pension contributions leading to low premium debtors, policy lapses, and contribution arrears in the insurance and pensions industry.

1.9 Impact of Eastern Europe Geopolitical Tensions

- 1.9.1 The geopolitical tensions in Eastern Europe have resulted in global commodity crises causing severe economic damage. Global commodity prices for oil, gas and wheat but to mention a few have risen to unprecedented levels and will most likely lead to imported inflation for the country thereby affecting business and household incomes.

4. Regulatory Interventions for the Period Ending 31 December 2021

4.1 Restructuring of the Commission

- 4.1.2 In line with the restructuring of the Commission, the Insurance and Microinsurance Department was restructured and now has three (3) distinct sections. These are the Prudential Supervision, which will focus on assessing the financial soundness of insurance companies; Market Conduct Supervision that will focus on business conduct and fair treatment of policyholders; and the Technical Supervision, which will focus on financial analysis.

SECTION A

6. SHORT TERM INSURANCE COMPANIES

6.1 Performance in terms of business written

The total business written by short-term insurers increased by 110.65% in nominal terms from ZW$9.11 billion for the year ended 31 December 2020 to ZW$19.19 billion for the period under review. The significant nominal growth is mainly attributable to insurance premiums closely tracking inflation. Figure 3 below shows the trend in the volume of the business generated by short-term insurers from 2017 to 2021.

6.2 Foreign currency denominated business

The foreign currency denominated Gross Premium Written for the twelve months ended 31 December 2021 increased by 49.87% from US$67.71 million reported during 2020 to US$101.48 million reported for the comparative period in 2021. Foreign currency denominated business contributed 57% of the total business generated by short term insurers during the period under review. The

As shown in Figure 5 above and in line with ZWL denominated business, the major sources of foreign currency denominated business for short-term insurers were motor and fire lines of business, contributing a combined 44.8% of the total business written for the twelve months ended 31 December 2021.

6.3 Capitalisation

All eighteen (18) insurers reported capital positions that were above the minimum capital requirement of ZW$37.5 million as at 31 December 2021. The reported capital positions were computed without accounting for non-admissible assets as stipulated in Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017. The reported capital positions are shown in Table 7 below.

Sanctuary	199,07	218,64
Zimnat Lion	386,83	345,34
Total	11 314,56	4 201,30

Seventeen (17) out of the eighteen insurers that were operational were compliant with the minimum solvency margin of 25% as stipulated in Section 24(1a) (ii) of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07]. The solvency margins for individual insurers as at 31 December 2021 ranged from 21.03% to 843.62% as shown in Appendix 1C.

6.4 Asset Quality

Total assets for short-term insurers increased by 125.82% from ZW$8.87 billion reported as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$20.03 billion reported as at 31 December 2021.

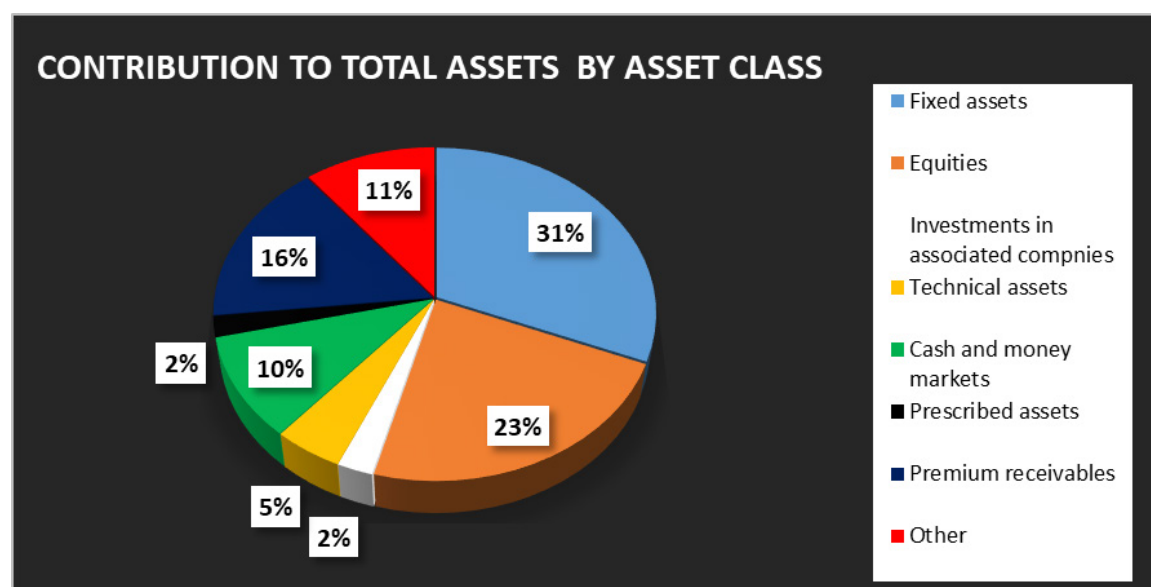

Premium debtors increased by 29.32% from ZW$2.49 billion reported as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$3.22 billion as at 31 December 2021. The increase in premium receivables is a sign of ineffective credit control systems by insurers in the management of credit risk. The development of a No Premium No Cover Policy framework to regulate the issuance of policies on credit is still work in progress.

Investments in prescribed assets increased by 21.86% from ZW$315.10 million as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$383.97 million as at 30 December 2021. None of the eighteen short-term insurers was compliant with the minimum prescribed asset ratio of 10% as at 31 December 2021.

Compliance with prescribed asset requirements remains significantly very low. The Commission still expects the submission of project initiatives that speak to industry needs for the consideration of prescribed asset status.

Fixed assets, equities and premium receivables were the three major asset classes accounting for 70% of total assets. Property and equipment alone constituted 31% against a limit of 10% while premium debtors contributed 16% against a limit of 5% in violation of Circular 2 of 2013 on investment limits.

Short term insurance players are encouraged to structure their investment portfolios in ways that enable not only preservation of policyholder value but also promote a balanced investment mix in line with the Commission's investment limits and asset/liability profiles.

6.5 Reinsurance

The industry's average retention ratio increased from 42.81% for the year ended 31 December 2020 to 53.67% for the year ended 31 December 2021. This shows an increase in the average risk appetite by the direct short-term insurers. Retention ratios for individual insurers ranged from 15.08% to 99.31%.

The average reinsurance share of outstanding claims to gross outstanding claims ratio was 61.96% as at 31 December 2021, compared to 36.28% reported as at 31 December 2020. (See Appendix 1C for more indicators).

6.6 Technical Position

Technical liabilities for the short-term sector increased by 119.48% from ZW$1.54 billion as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$3.38 billion as at 31 December 2021. The average liquid assets to technical reserves for the period under review decreased from 111.15% in December 2020 to 87.61% during the comparative period in 2021. The ratio measures the degree to which an insurer can cover its unexpected technical obligations by holding cash and other liquid investments without the sale of strategic investments that may result in realised losses. The decline in the average liquid assets to technical reserves indicates a decline in cautiousness by industry players, as less liquid assets were set aside for unexpected claims.

The technical assets for short-term sector increased by 194% from ZW$0.32 billion as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$0.94 billion as at 31 December 2021. Technical assets were ZW$2.44 billion lower than the technical liabilities. The industry is encouraged to improve on their claims settling pattern so as to reduce their outstanding liabilities.

6.7 Earnings

The short-term insurers reported a total profit after tax of ZW$4.54 billion for the twelve months ending 31 December 2021, indicating an increase of 86.83% in nominal terms from the ZW$2.43 billion reported in the comparative period in 2020.

There was an increase in the combined ratio for the short-term insurers from 91.18% during the twelve months of 2020 to 105.50% during the same period in 2021. Generally, a combined ratio above 100% is undesirable as it indicates underwriting losses while the opposite is true for a combined ratio below 100%.

In line with the increase in the combined ratio, the short-term insurers made an underwriting loss of ZW$510.91 million for the period ending 31 December 2021 as compared to the profit of ZW$369.98 million recorded during the same period in 2020. Eight (8) out of the eighteen (18) short-term insurers reported underwriting losses during the period under review compared to seven (7) reported for the twelve months of 2020.

The average net commission ratio was 13.21% for the period under review compared to 8.30% for the twelve months of 2020. The increase shows that the industry paid more commissions to intermediaries as compared to the previous reporting period. The increase in average commission rate is in line with the Commission's findings from the thematic offsite inspection on commissions. The inspection established that some industry players were paying commissions above the statutory limits outlined in Circular 2 of 2009. The highest net commission paid by a short-term insurer for the period under review was 49.60% of earned premiums. Non-compliant short-term insurers are reminded to observe the dictates of Circular 2 of 2009. (For individual short-term insurers' net commission ratios, please refer to Appendix 1C).

The industry's average return on assets (ROA) and return on equity (ROE) were 44.91% and 79.63% for the period under review, compared to 54.85% and 118.59% respectively for the year ended 31 December 2020. The decrease in ROA shows that the short-term insurance sector did not fully utilise its investment assets to increase profitability. (For more performance, indicators on profitability refer to Appendix 1C under earnings).

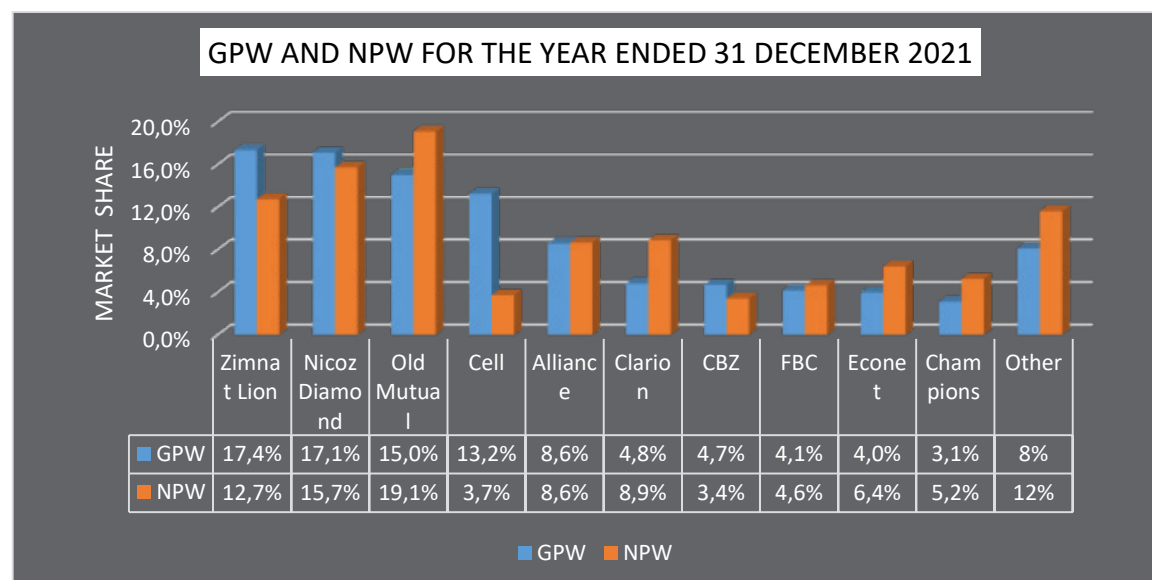

6.8 Liquidity

Total cash and near-cash assets in the form of money market instruments slightly increased by 1% from ZW$2 billion as at 30 September 2021 to ZW$2.02 billion as at 31 December 2021. Six (6) out of the eighteen operational short-term insurers had negative working capital ratios while the industry's acid test ratio averaged 27.6% as at 31 December 2021. The low ratio is a cause for concern as short-term insurers face a high liquidity risk leading to low capacity to meet short-term financial obligations. The acid test ratio for individual insurers as at 31 December 2021 ranged from 4.36% to 312.85% as shown in Appendix 1C.

6.9 Market share for short-term insurers

Consistent with the trend in 2020, Zimnat Lion, Nicoz Diamond and Old Mutual have remained the market leaders in terms of GPW with a combined market share of 49.5% for the twelve months ended 31 December 2021. Figure 7 below shows market share in terms of GPW and NPW for all insurers:

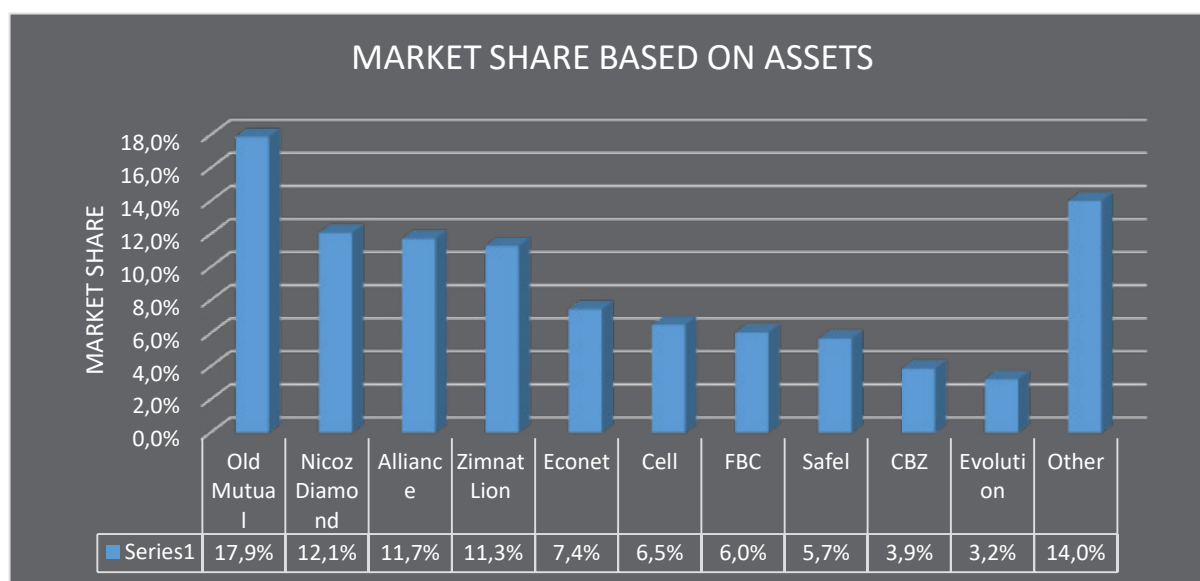

Figure 7: Market Share for Short Term Insurers in Terms GPW

Other include Allied, Credit Insurance, ECGC, Evolution, Hamilton, Quality and Sanctuary

In terms of total assets, the market leaders were Old Mutual, Nicoz Diamond and Alliance with a combined market share of 41.7%. Figure 8 below shows market share in terms of assets for all insurers:

7. REINSURANCE COMPANIES

7.1 Performance in terms of business written

The total business written by short-term reinsurers increased by 107.49% from ZW$5.30 billion for the year ended 31 December 2020 to ZW$11.00 billion for the comparative period in 2021. Figure 10 below shows the trend in volume of business written by short-term reinsurers from 2017 to 2021:

The significant increase in business written between 2019 and 2021 can be attributed to premium reviews in line with inflation developments and exchange rate volatility.

As seen in Table 8 above, the real growth in GPW for the year ended 31 December 2021 was 28.94%, which shows that there was real growth in business. Five (5) lines of business experienced a decrease in income.

Figure 11: The contribution of GPW by line of business for short-term reinsurers

Other comprises of hire purchase, hail, health and casualty.*

In line with developments in the short-term direct business, Motor and Fire lines of business were the major sources of business for the year ended 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2021 contributing 63% and 57% respectively to the GPW. While fire insurance was the major source of business for reinsurers, motor insurance was the major source of business for direct underwriters indicating that direct underwriters retained the major portion of motor insurance risk confirming that third party motor insurance has remained the major source of business in the local market.

7.2 Foreign currency denominated business

The total foreign currency denominated business written by short-term reinsurers increased by 21.3% from US$67.05 million for the twelve months ended 31 December 2020 to US$81.33 million for the comparative period in 2021. Table 9 shows the GPW by line of business for the year ended 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020.

Other include Aviation, Casualty, Hire purchase, Hail, Health and Personal liability.

Consistent with 2020 trend in foreign currency denominated business, the major classes of business written by short-term reinsurers were fire and motor business contributing a combined 62% of the gross premium written for the year ended 31 December 2021.

7.3 Capitalisation

As at 31 December 2021, all the registered short-term reinsurers reported capital positions that were above the minimum capital requirement of ZW$75 million. However, the reported capital positions were not adjusted in line with the provisions of Statutory Instrument (SI) 95 of 2017, which, among other things, discount non-permissible assets. The reported capital positions as at 31 December 2020 and 31 December 2021 for short-term reinsurers are shown in Table 10 below.

	Below minimum capital requirement of ZW$75 million

All the reinsurers were compliant with the minimum solvency margin of 25% as stipulated in Section 24(1a) (ii) of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07]. The solvency margin for individual reinsurers as at 31 December 2021 ranged from 54% to 123% as shown in Appendix 2C.

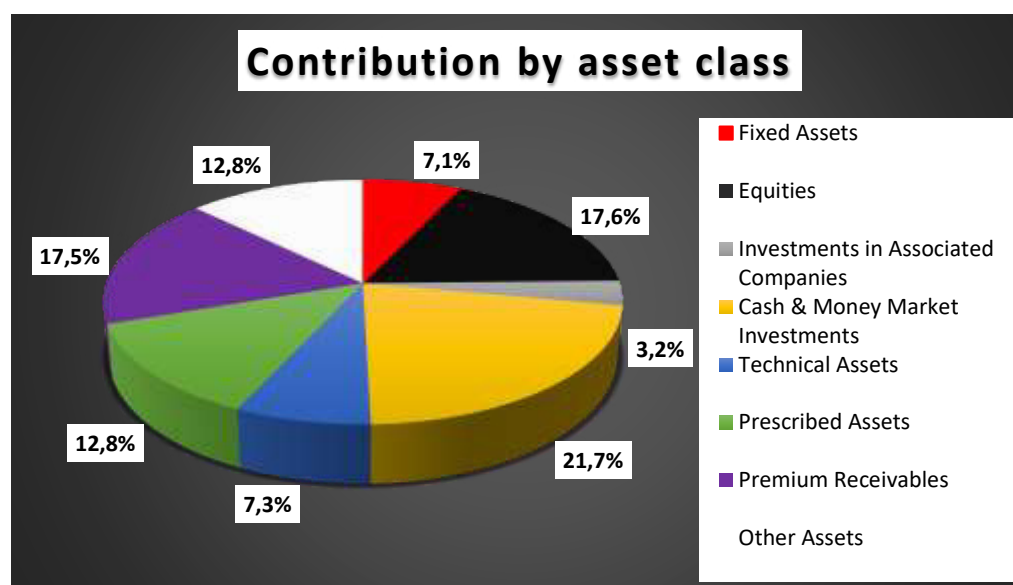

7.4 Asset quality

The asset base for short-term reinsurers increased by 99.22% from ZW$6.40 billion reported as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$12.70 billion as at 31 December 2021. Investments in prescribed assets slightly increased from ZW$1.28 billion as at 30 September 2021 to ZW$1.63 billion as at 31 December 2021. However, only three (3) out of the eight (8) reinsurers were compliant with the requisite prescribed asset threshold of 10%.

Premium receivables increased from ZW$1.08 billion as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$2.23 billion as at 31 December 2021, indicating an increase of 106.48%. The increase in premium receivables is a cause for concern as it indicates ineffectiveness of credit control systems to manage credit risk by players.

7.5 Technical Position

Total technical liabilities increased from ZW$1.85 billion as at 30 September 2021 to ZW$4.01 billion as at 31 December 2021 indicating an increase of 116.76%. Unearned Premium Reserves, which amounted to ZW$2.01 billion accounted for 50% of the total technical liabilities.

The technical assets increased from ZW$0.32 billion as at as at 31 December 2020 to ZW$0.94 billion as at 31 December 2021 indicating an increase of 194%. Technical assets were ZW$3.13 billion lower than the technical liabilities. The industry is encouraged to improve on their claims settling pattern so as to reduce their outstanding liabilities.

7.6 Retrocession

The sector's average retention ratio was 64.75% for the year ended 31 December 2021 compared to 64.02% during the comparative period in 2020. This reflects a slight increase in risk appetite by the short-term reinsurance companies. The individual reinsurers' reported retention ratios ranged from 41.04% to 83.92% for the period under review.

7.7 Earnings

Total profit after tax for short-term reinsurers increased by 15.17% from ZW$2.11 billion for the period ended 31 December 2020 to ZW$2.43 billion for the period ended 31 December 2021.

The average net commission ratio was 30.85% for the period under review compared to 34.01% for the year ended 31 December 2020. This shows that the average commission paid by short-term reinsurers decreased when 31 36 compared to the same period in 2020. The highest net commission ratio paid by a short-term reinsurer during the period under review was 43.79% of earned premiums, in violation of the limits prescribed by Circular 2 of 2009.

The average combined ratio for the short-term reinsurers decreased from 111.98% for the year ended 31 December 2020 to 82.26% for the period under review. The decrease indicates improved operational profitability by the sector. The combined ratio and other ratios that relate to profitability for short-term reinsurers is shown in Appendix 2C under earnings.

7.8 Liquidity

Liquid assets in the form of cash and money market instruments held by short-term reinsurers increased by 28.24% from ZW$2.16 billion as at 30 September 2021 to ZW$2.77 billion as at 31 December 2021. The average acid test ratio for short-term reinsurers increased from 46.28% as at 31 December 2020 to 68.15% as at 31 December 2021. The increase in average acid test ratio indicates a decrease in liquidity risk for short term reinsures. The acid test ratios for short-term reinsurers are shown in Appendix 2C under liquidity.

7.9 Market share for reinsurers

As shown in Figure 14 below, the market leaders in terms of GPW were Zep Re, ZB Re and Tropical Re. These reinsurers controlled 45.1% of the market in terms of Gross Premium Written (GPW) for the year ended 31 December 2021. The market leaders in terms of the Net Premium Written (NPW) were ZB Re, FBC Re and Waica Re who collectively controlled 47.6% of the NPW for the year ended 31 December 2021.

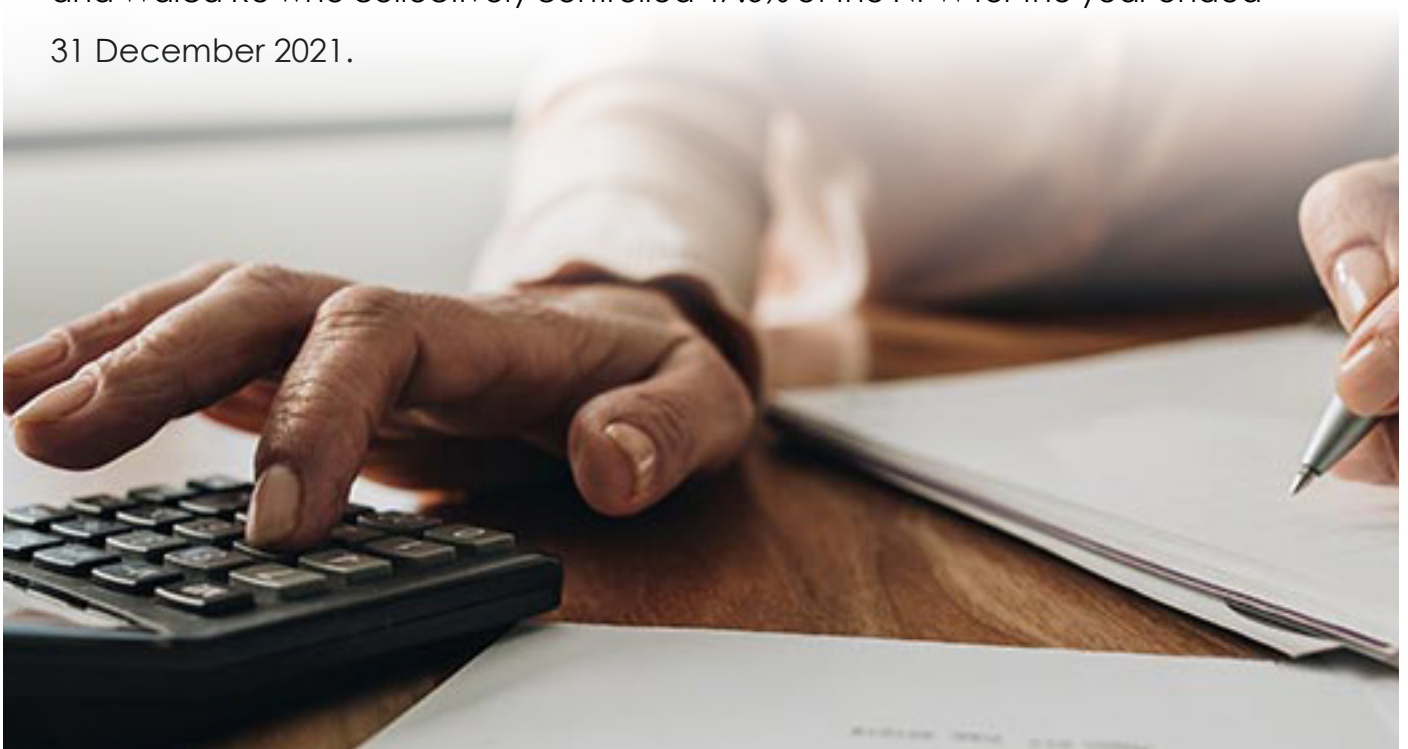

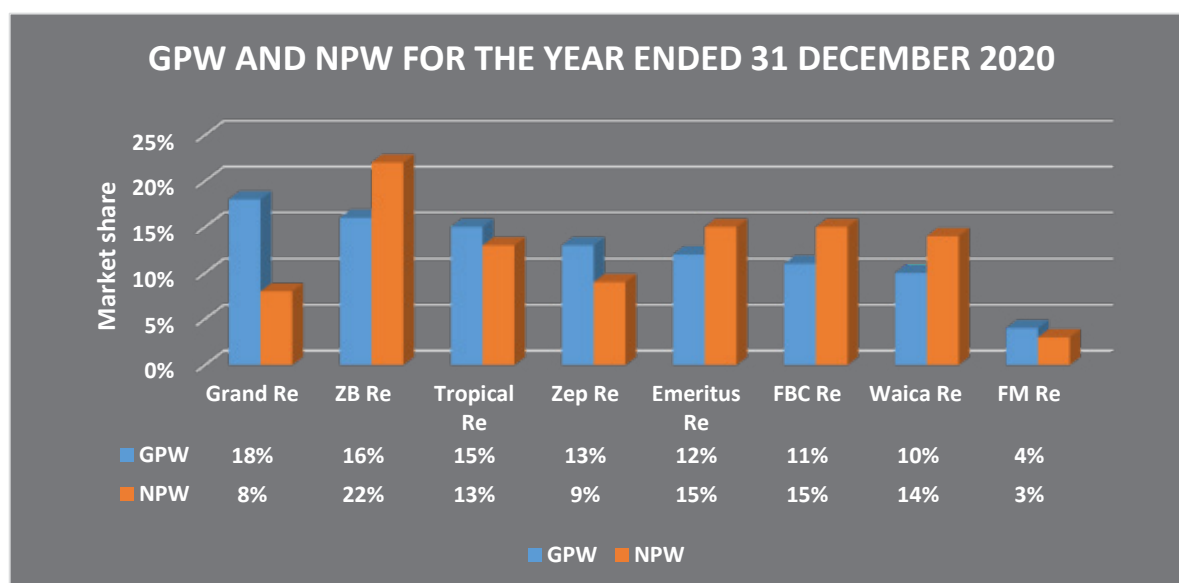

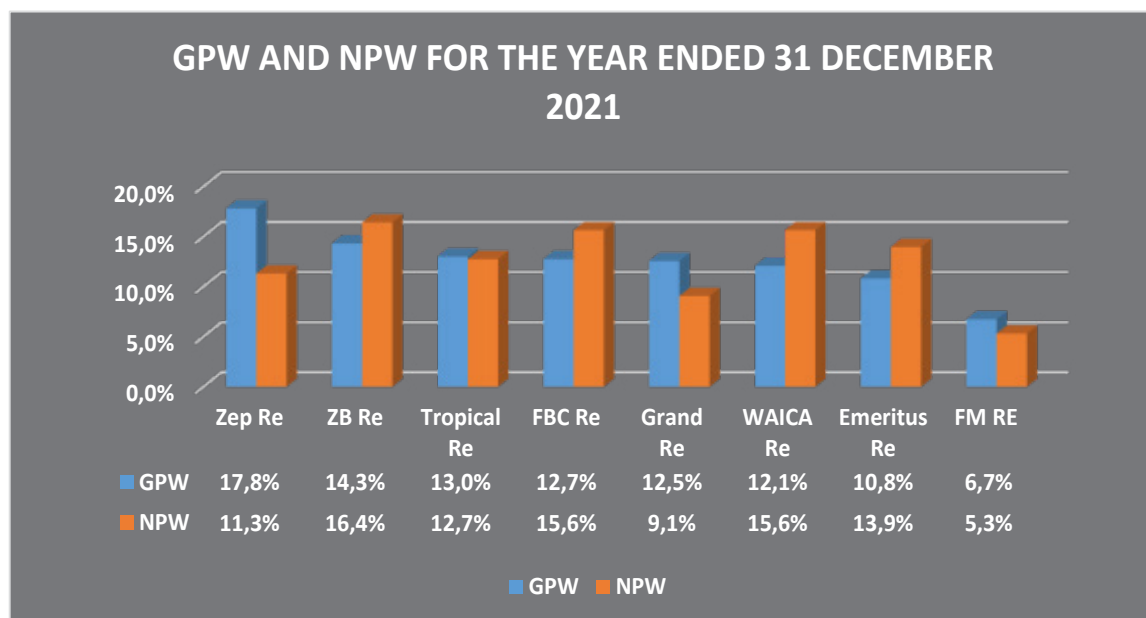

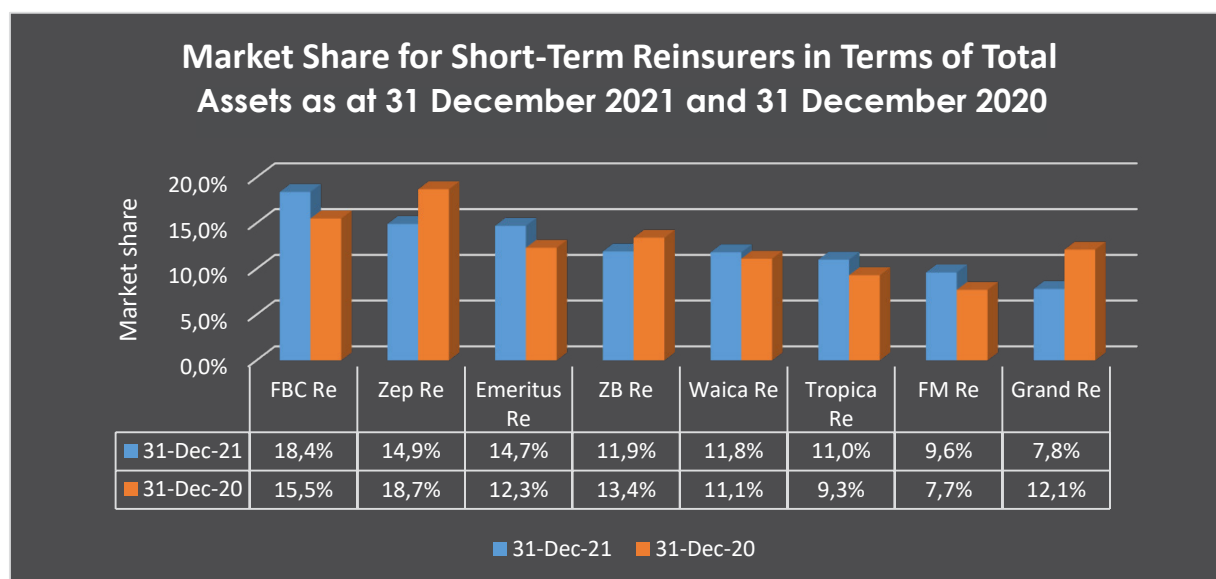

Figure 14: Market Share for Short -Term Reinsurers in Terms of GPW and NPW

In terms of total assets, FBC Re, Zep-Re and Emeritus Re were the market leaders for the year ended 31 December 2021, with a combined market share of 48% as depicted in Figure 15.

9. BROKERS SECTION

9.1 Introduction

This section analyses the business performance of insurance brokers for the period ending 31 December 2021. During the period under review, Ambassador, Revival, Auto and General and Hostcare Insurance Brokers were deregistered, and one new reinsurance broker (Skybridge) was registered. At the time of reporting Skybridge had not begun trading. The operating environment is slowly improving following relaxation of Covid-19 restrictions, coupled with adoption of digitisation as the new norm of doing business by most entities. All the 28 registered insurance brokers submitted their online fourth quarter returns while eight failed to submit their USD returns to the Commission.

9.2 Business Written by Insurance Brokers

Gross premium receivable by insurance brokers for the period ended 31 December 2021 was ZW$10.4 billion, which was a 124% increase in nominal terms from ZW$4.7 billion reported during the same period in 2020. The increase in premium receivable by the direct brokers is on account of premiums tracking inflation.

The Commission will continuously monitor the progress of Rainbow Insurance Brokers towards compliance with this statutory requirement. Capital positions for the direct brokers are as illustrated in Table 14 below.

For the period ended 31 December 2021, insurance brokers reported a combined profit after tax of ZW$402 million, representing a nominal increase of 23% from ZW$327 million reported during the comparative period 2020. SECTION F

11. Complaints handling

The commission received a total of 22 complaints in the period under review and 21 of them were resolved and the other 1 was still under investigation.

The major source of complaints was repudiations which accounted for 55% of total complaints. Most of the complaints emanated from tobacco claims whose premiums were not remitted to insurers by tobacco contractors, while some were as a result of violation of policy conditions by the insured.

Most of the delays in settlement is attributed to investigations by the insurer where there are suspicions of fraudulent claims and third-party motor claims where there is insufficient documentation to enable the settlement of the claims.

For the quarter under review 96% (21 complaints) of reported complaints were resolved while the remaining 4% (1 complaint) percent was not resolved and spilled over to the first quarter of 2022.
