Hon. Prof. M. Ncube

Minister of Finance and Economic Development
6th Floor Block B Mgandani Dlodlo Building
Corner Samora Machel Avenue/ Simon Muzenda
Harare

Dear Honourable Minister,

RE: SUBMISSION OF THE 2022 INSURANCE ANNUAL REPORT IN TERMS OF SECTION 70 OF THE INSURANCE ACT [CHAPTER 24:07].

Honourable Minister, I have the honour, in terms of Section 70 of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07] to submit my report for the year ended 31 December 2022. The report has been compiled using audited financial statements lodged with the Commission in terms of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07].

Yours sincerely,

Grace Muradzikwa

COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE, PENSION AND PROVIDENT FUNDS

Acknowledgements

The Commission wishes to express its sincere gratitude to the Ministry of Finance Economic Development and Investment Promotion, the Board and the staff for their contributions and support in regulating the insurance industry.

We also thank the market players for their cooperation and support in producing this report.

What is the Insurance and Pensions Commission?

The Insurance and Pensions Commission (IPEC) is an independent statutory body established in terms of the Insurance and Pensions Commission Act [Chapter 24:21] with a mandate to regulate and supervise the insurance and private pension funds activities in Zimbabwe.

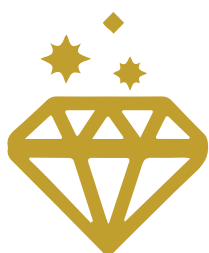

Vision

A safe, vibrant and sustainable insurance and pensions industry by 2025.

Mission

To regulate, supervise and develop the insurance and pensions industry for the protection of policyholders and pension scheme members through regulatory excellence.

Core Values

The organisational culture at IPEC is shaped by the following shared core values:

- i. Professionalism: We are professional in the way we conduct ourselves and carry out our business
- ii. Accountability: We shall endeavour to conduct ourselves and operate business transparently while exercising prudence in the use of public resources entrusted to IPEC.
- iii. Fairness: We shall develop and apply rules, regulations and procedures equitably among all clients and stakeholders
- iv. Integrity: We are fair, ethical and honest in our dealings with all our stakeholders, we apply agreed policies equally to all and maintain the highest personal, professional and ethical conduct.
- v. Excellence: We are exemplary in the way we do our business. We strive to exceed expectations by upholding the utmost quality standards in carrying out our work. The Commissioner and all staff have a unity of purpose in the core values that they each uphold, as individuals and as a team.

Key Result Areas

The following three key result areas form the pillar of the Authority's 2021-2025 strategic plan:

1. Regulation and Supervision

The Commission aims to offer policy guidance to the insurance and pension industry. To realise this, the Commission has set out the following objectives:

- To improve corporate governance
- To improve compliance

2. Institutional Capacity Development

The Commission aims to provide high-quality services while optimising efficiency and effectiveness through:

- Human Resources outcome
- Sustainable funding
- Increased internal controls and compliance
- Digital transformation
- Increased visibility

3. Facilitation of Growth and Capacity

To assist the industry in growth and capacitation, the Commission has set up the following objectives:

- Increased financial soundness and consistent policies,
- Focus on industry growth,

Preamble

The Commissioner of Insurance, Pension and Provident Funds, is required, by Section 70 of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07], to submit to the Minister an annual report on the performance of the insurance industry during the previous calendar year.

The Minister is required to lay a copy of the submitted report before Parliament on one of the fourteen days on which Parliament sits next after he has received it.

The report reviews the performance of the insurance industry during the year ended 31 December 2022, to inform the various stakeholders on the performance and financial position of the insurance industry in Zimbabwe, and any other developments in the industry.

The following institutions failed to submit their 2022 audited financial statements:

Executive Summary

For the period under review, Gross Premiums Written (GPW) by the insurance industry amounted to ZW$332 billion reflecting, an increase of 355% from ZW$73 billion reported for the year ended 31 December 2021. Claims reported in the year amounted to ZW$152 billion, which was a 100% increase from the ZW$76 billion reported for the year ended 31 December 2021.

The industry reported total assets amounting to ZW$1.2 trillion, which was an increase of 315% from the ZW$301 billion reported in 2021. The combined profit after tax amounted to ZW$45 billion for the year ended 31 December 2022, translating to an increase of 54% from ZW$29 billion reported for the year ended 31 December 2021.

An assessment of the compliance levels with the Minimum Capital Requirements (MCR) showed that all entities were compliant.

For the year ended 31 December 2022, there was a total of 135 complaints recorded, out of which 128 were resolved.

The insurance industry's average compliance rate on prescribed assets was 6.7% during the period ending 31 December 2022.

1. Overview of the Macro-Economic Environment

1.1 Global and Regional Economic Outlook

The Global Economic outlook is expected to be weighed down by elevated inflationary pressures, tightening global financial conditions associated with high interest rate hikes by most Central Banks, and continued negative spillover effects from Geopolitical tensions. Furthermore, the turmoil of new waves of the COVID-19 pandemic continued to disrupt economic activity in some countries.

The global growth is projected to moderate to 2.7% in 2023 from 3.2% as indicated in Table 2 below, marking the weakest growth profile since 2001, outside the 2009 global financial crisis and the acute phase of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Table 2: World Economic Outlook

	2022	2023	2024
World Output	3.2	2.7	3.4

1.2 Domestic Economic Outlook

The Zimbabwean economy was initially expected to grow by 4.6% in 2022, but this was revised down to 4% due to high inflation and the measures taken to stabilize it. For 2023, the growth forecast is 3.8%, lower than the National Development Strategy 1 target of at least 5%. This is due to global uncertainties and potential domestic issues. In the medium term, growth is expected to improve, reaching 4.8% in 2024 and 5% in 2025.

1.3 Exchange Rate Developments

The Zimbabwean dollar depreciated against the US dollar from an average of US$1:ZW$ 621.50 as at 30 September 2022 to US$1:ZW$ 684.3 as of 31 December 2022. The exchange rate depreciation was caused by high demand for foreign currency as a store of value, as well as forward exchange rate pricing due to high inflation expectations.

1.4 Inflation Developments

The year-on-year inflation rate slowed down to 243.7% in December 2022, from 280.4% recorded in September 2022, driven by monetary stabilisation measures implemented by RBZ. The month-on-month inflation rate was 1.3% as of 31 December 2022, down from 2.5% recorded as of 30 September 2022 on account of the decrease in food and non-food inflation following the introduction of fiscal and monetary stabilisation measures during the period under review. Figure 2 illustrates the inflation trend from December 2021 to December 2022.

1.5 Zimbabwe Stock Exchange Performance

The Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) traded in the red in the fourth quarter of 2022. As a result, the Top 10 All Share, Top 15, Medium, and Small Cap Indices all fell due to low trading during the festive season. The Mining Index, on the other hand, increased by 27,30% to close the month of December 2022 at 25,487.77 points, up from 20,021.24 points in June 2022.

Owing to the negative trading exhibited on the local bourse, coupled with the de-listing of some counters, the ZSE lost 16.17%, or ZW$394.30 billion worth of capitalisation to ZW$2,044.87 billion in December 2022, from ZW$1,317.21 billion in December 2021.

1.6 Victoria Falls Stock Exchange (VFEX) Performance

During the period under review, the Victoria Falls Stock Exchange (VFEX) displayed bearish sentiment. As a result, the VFEX All Share Index fell 17.82% in December 2022, closing at 94.83 points, down from 115,39 points in June 2022.

2. Global Insurance Overview

In the 2023 OECD Report on Global Insurance Market Trends, it was highlighted that rising inflation and interest rates negatively impacted insurers' underwriting and investment performance in 2022. The report noted that the impact of inflation significantly increased claims in the non-life sector in many countries. It is worth noting that the rise in non-life claims payments even outpaced inflation on average in 2022. Rising inflation and interest rates also led to losses on insurers fixed-income holdings, their largest asset class. The 2023 OECD report stated that most insurers incurred substantial real investment losses in 2022.

The OECD report further states that as a result of the surging inflation in most countries, gross premium written contracted by 4.5% in the life sector in real terms, but still grew by 1.2% in real terms in the non-life. Non-life claims payments increased by 5.8% in real terms among reporting jurisdictions, while the rate of payouts for life insurance shrank by -9.1% in real terms. According to the report, real investment rates of return were negative in 18 out of 22 reporting jurisdictions for life insurers, 19 out of 26 reporting jurisdictions for non-life insurers, and 16 out of 17 reporting jurisdictions for composite insurers that have life and non-life business.

3. Africa Insurance Overview

According to the Africa Insurance Market report, the Africa insurance market was valued at US$81.6 billion in 2022. The growth rate (compound annual growth rate) during the period 2023-2028 is expected to be 7.1%. The rising literacy rate, along with the growing consumer awareness regarding the significance and advantages of insurance, is primarily driving the African insurance market. Educational campaigns and outreach programs that facilitate the dispelling of misconceptions and the enhancement of trust in insurance products among African populations have boosted insurance penetration in the region.

The Africa Insurance Market Report noted that the sudden outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic has led to the increasing demand for online healthcare insurance consultations across several African nations to remotely provide cover for medical expenses incurred during the treatment of the coronavirus disease. On a regional level, South Africa currently dominates the African insurance market (J. Rudden, 2023).

4. Local Insurance Industry and the National Economy

The insurance industry not only protects individuals and businesses but also plays a crucial role in maintaining financial stability, promoting economic resilience, and supporting growth in Zimbabwe.

Table 3 shows insurance parameters as related to the economy.

The trend in the country's insurance density and penetration ratios (a) for the last four (4) years is shown in Figure 3.

a- Insurance penetration is defined as the ratio of gross direct premium to the gross domestic product in a given year for a given country or region while insurance density represents the ratio of gross direct premium to the total population of a country or region.

5. Architecture of the Insurance Industry

As of 31 December 2022, the insurance industry was made up of 60 insurance companies, 2,343 agents, 35 brokers and 56 loss assessors. The figure below shows the breakdown of the insurance industry players.

During the period under review, there were some new registrations as shown in the table below:

Table 4: Insurance Companies' Movements

Class of Business	New registrations
Short term	1
Reinsurance	1
Loss adjuster	8
Microinsurance	5
Agents	29
UMA	2

6. Gross Premium Written

Gross Premium Written by the industry was ZW$332 billion in real terms (ZW$236 billion in nominal terms), for the year ended 31 December 2022, indicating a 357% increase from ZW$73 billion reported during the comparative period in 2021. Reinsurance premium was ZW$75 billion in real terms (ZW$58 billion in nominal terms) up from ZW$14 billion reported for the year ended 31 December 2021.

Short-term insurers contributed 47%, life business contributed 47% while Micro-insurers and Funeral assurance companies contributed 2% and 4% respectively to the total gross premium written by the direct underwriters. The table below shows the distribution of the insurance premium by class of business:

Table 5: Gross Premium Written by Class of Business.

Class of Business	Inflation Adjusted (ZW$)			Nominal (ZW$)
	2021	2022	Growth/ (Decline)	2021	2022	Growth/ (Decline)
Short-term Insurers	26,154,130,508	121,316,465,537	363.85%	17,321,006,629	86,235,425,307	397.87%

7. Claims

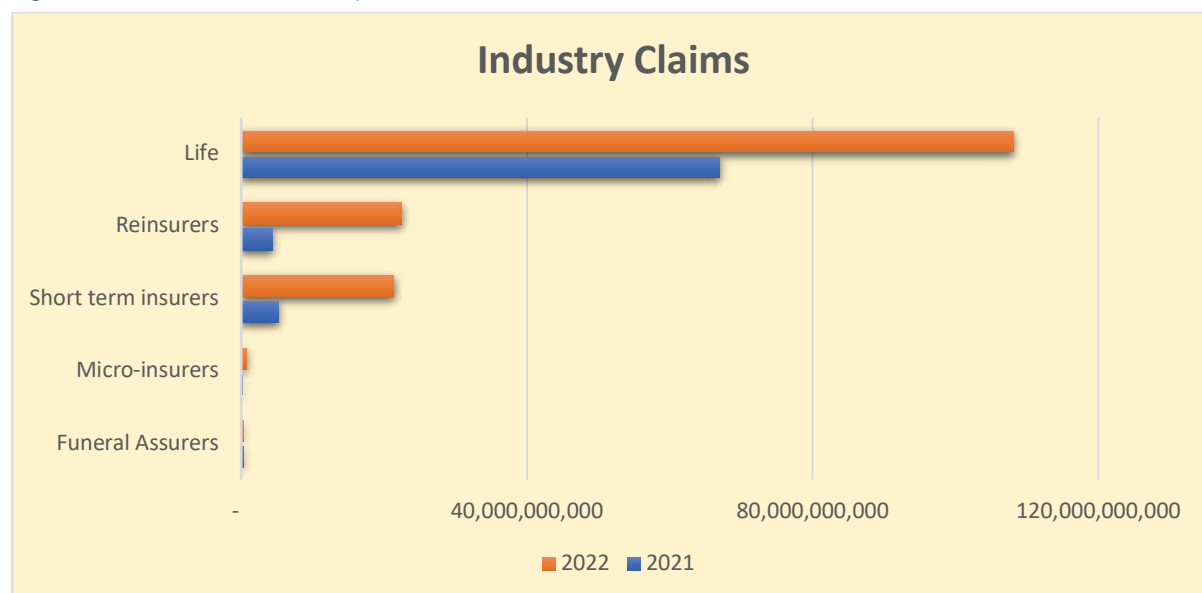

The industry incurred total claims of ZW$152 billion in real terms (ZW$488 billion in nominal terms) for the year ended 31 December 2022, showing an increase of 98% in claims from ZW$77 billion for the year ended 31 December 2021. The table below shows the distribution of the insurance claims per class of business:

Table 6: Total Industry Claims by Class

Class of Business	Year		% Change
	2021 (ZW$) Claims	2022 (ZW$) Claims
Funeral Assurers	331,194,669	272,082,577	-18%
Micro-insurers	161,069,290	790,862,109	391%
Short-term Insurers	5,161,760,158	21,005,525,080	307%
Reinsurers	4,341,438,022	22,368,244,772	415%
Life Insurers	66,920,947,890	108,086,936,279	62%
Total Claims	76,916,410,029	152,523,650,817	98%

The life business incurred the largest share of claims, accounting for 71% of the industry total claims, followed by reinsurers with 15%. Figure 5 below shows the share of claims by class of business for the years ended 31 December 2021 and 2022:

8. Insurance Industry Earnings

The insurance industry reported combined profit after tax of ZW$45 billion (ZW$131 billion nominal) for the year ended 31 December 2022, which translated to an increase of 54% from ZW$29 billion reported for the year ended 31 December 2021.

The major driver of the increase in profit after tax was the significant increase in fair value gains from equity investments and property valuations. Increases in gross premiums also contributed to the increase in earnings.

In terms of distribution by line of business, the highest contributor was the short-term business, with 92% of the total industry profit, followed by the reinsurers and brokers with 9% each. Other players contributed a total of 7%, whilst life business had a negative contribution of 18% as shown in Figure 6 below:

9. Key Industry Performance Indicators

The average industry combined ratio for the insurance industry improved from 334% reported in 2021 to 133%. Despite the improvement in the combined ratio, the industry is still making underwriting losses.

The average combined ratio was mainly driven by the rising expenses ratio, which increased from 41% in 2021 to 62% in 2022. The high expense ratio was attributable to life business, which contributed 47% of the total industry expense ratio. The major contributors to those expenses were operating expenses and staff expenses.

The other key performance indicators for the year ended 31 December 2022 remained relatively constant compared to the same period in 2021 as tabulated below:

Table 7: Other Industry Key Performance Indicators

Item	2021	2022	% Change
Retention Ratio	75%	71%	-5%
Claims Ratio	281%	64%	-77%
Net Commission Ratio	12%	8%	-36%
Expenses Ratio	41%	62%	50%
Combined Ratio	334%	133%	-60%
Investment Income Ratio	45%	19%	-57%

10. Insurance Industry Assets

Total industry assets grew by 315% to ZW$1.2 trillion in real terms (ZW$454 billion in nominal terms) as of 31 December 2022 from ZW$301 billion on 31 December 2021. The significant increase was on account of revaluation surpluses on assets. A large portion of the assets were held in investment property and equities, hence the major drivers for the increase were investment property and equities revaluations.

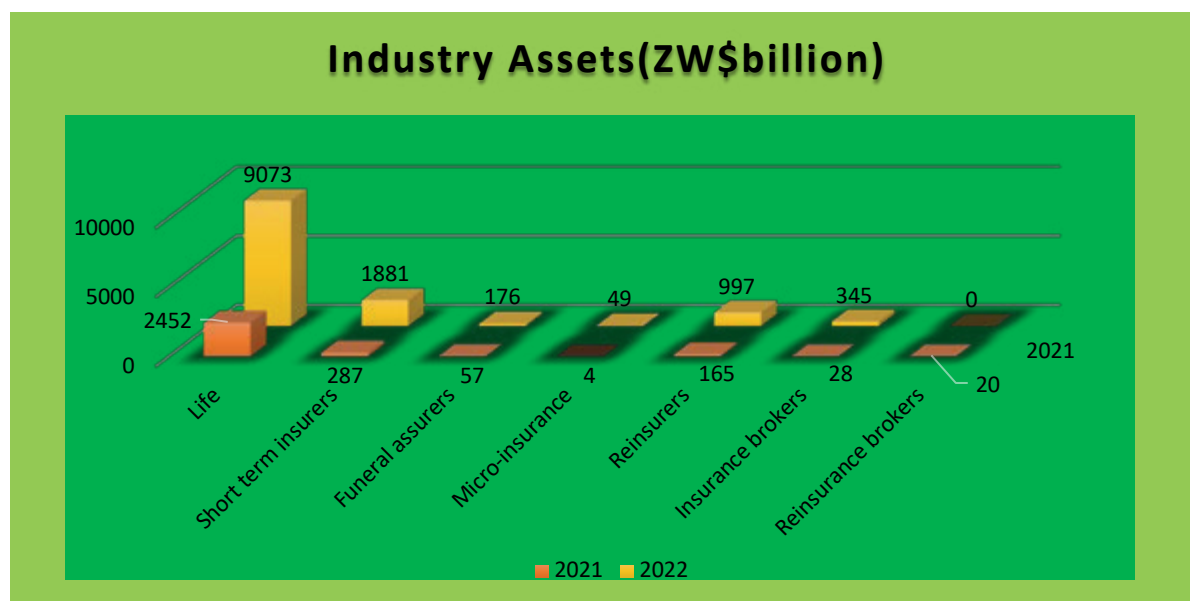

Below is a breakdown of the distribution of industry assets by class of business as of 31 December 2022.

Table 8: Total Assets per Class of Business

Class of Business	2021 (ZW$ Million)	2022 (ZW$ Million)
Short-term Insurers	28,714	185,502
Funeral Assurers	5,724	18,162
Micro-insurance	447	4,879
Reinsurers	16,474	99,270
Insurance Brokers	2,846	34,514
Reinsurance Brokers	1,990	27
Life Insurers	245,227	907,330
Total	301,422.00	1,249,684.00

Figure7: Industry Assets per Class of Business

Life business contributed the largest share of the industry assets, constituting 73% of the total assets of the industry. This is consistent with the prior year where the life business contributed 81%. Figure 8 illustrates the distribution of total industry assets by class of business.

11. Capitalisation

As of 31 December 2022, all insurers reported capital positions were above the Minimum Capital Requirements (MCR) as stipulated in terms of Statutory Instrument 59 of March 2020. The table below shows compliance with the minimum capital requirements for the industry:

Table 9: Industry Compliance with the Minimum Capital Requirements

Class of Business	MCR (ZW$ million)	Total Number of Entities	No. of Compliant Entities	Compliance Status
Short-term Insurance	37.5	20	19	95%
Reinsurance	75	9	9	100%
Funeral Assurance*	62.5	8	5	63%
Life Assurance*	75	12	12	100%
Composite Insurance	112.5	2	2	100%
Micro-insurers	5	10	2	20%
Insurance Brokers*	1.5	28	27	96%
Reinsurance Brokers*	1.5	7	6	86%
Average Compliance Level				94%

*2 funeral assurers, 1 short-term insurer, 1 insurance broker and 1 reinsurance broker did not submit their 2022 financial statements, whilst 8 micro-insurers submitted nil returns.

The reported capital positions were computed without accounting for non-admissible assets as stipulated in Statutory Instrument 95 of 2017. Insurers are urged to adequately prepare for the risk-based capital regime effective 1 January 2023.

12. Financial Inclusion Initiatives

As part of fostering financial inclusion and ensuring the growth of insurance penetration in the country, the Commission is engaged in various projects as highlighted below:

12.1. Agriculture Index Insurance Project

The Commission partnered the International Finance Corporation in developing agriculture index insurance in Zimbabwe. The project is aimed at providing capacity building to IPEC, industry players Government agencies and other relevant stakeholders in agriculture index insurance. The project is also aimed at closing the current regulatory deficiencies by supporting the development of agriculture index insurance regulations. Furthermore, the project undertook feasibility studies on agriculture index insurance from a demand and supply-side perspective. The results of the feasibility studies will inform the development of the envisaged regulations.

12.2. Global Money Week

The Commission continues to participate in The Global Money Week (GMW) which is an annual financial awareness campaign meant to inspire children and young people to learn about money, saving, creating livelihoods, and gaining employment. To generate interest in insurance issues among children and young people, the Commission held a film competition for high school and university students as part of the 2022 GMW commemorations. Entries for the competition came from eight (8) provinces.

12.3. Innovation Lab

As part of fostering the development of the insurance industry, the Commission is participating in the 3rd Inclusive Insurance Innovation Lab sponsored by the Access to Insurance Initiative (A2II). The development and implementation of insurance solutions for the agricultural sector, especially smallholder farmers, is set to enhance climate adaptation, resilience and sustainable agricultural practices. The initiative is anchored on fostering inclusive financial solutions targeting the agriculture sector given its pivotal role in the country's economic landscape. The objective of the initiative is to promote financial inclusion and productivity, while reducing vulnerability and food insecurity arising from the impact of climate change.

Zimbabwe was nominated to participate in the 3rd Inclusive Insurance Innovation Lab which ran from 2021-2022 and was sponsored by Access to Insurance Initiative (A2II). Other countries participating in the project include Zambia, Grenada and Costa Rica. The Zimbabwe team is composed of representatives from the Insurance and Pensions Commission (IPEC), the insurance industry, farmer organisations and some development partners.

12.3.1 Project Implementation

The project developed a Product called the Farmers' Basket, which is an innovative insurance solution for smallholder farmers. The Farmers' Basket consists of the following covers:

- a) Weather Index Insurance based on satellite-based data, estimating rainfall indices (covering early and late dry spells);
- b) Area Yield Index Insurance based on Crop-Cutting Experiments (CCEs) carried out for randomized samples of insured farmers at the ward level.

The product provides cover for both weather perils such as early and late dry spells and multiple production risks, which can lead to significant reduction in yield.

12.3.2 Target Crop

Currently, the target crop for the product is maize. Farmers are provided with cover at the ward level. Farmers can be insured on a stand-alone voluntary basis and/or on a bundled mandatory basis, linked to agricultural loans and inputs (depending on the distribution channel selected).

Having gone through the Discovery and Innovation Stages, the project is now at the Implementation Stage with the product currently undergoing piloting in Goromonzi District, with just over 4,000 farmers having been enrolled.

12.4. Formation of the Zimbabwe Agricultural Pool

The Insurance Council of Zimbabwe formed a consortium of insurers to enhance capacity and expertise to profitably underwrite agriculture insurance. AFC Insurance was chosen as a lead insurer for the Farmers' Basket product.

13. Regulatory Developments

Listed below are the major Statutory Instruments and Circulars issued in 2022 to improve the regulatory capacity of the Commission to meet its mandate:

Table 10: Statutory Instruments and Circulars

14. Complaints Resolution

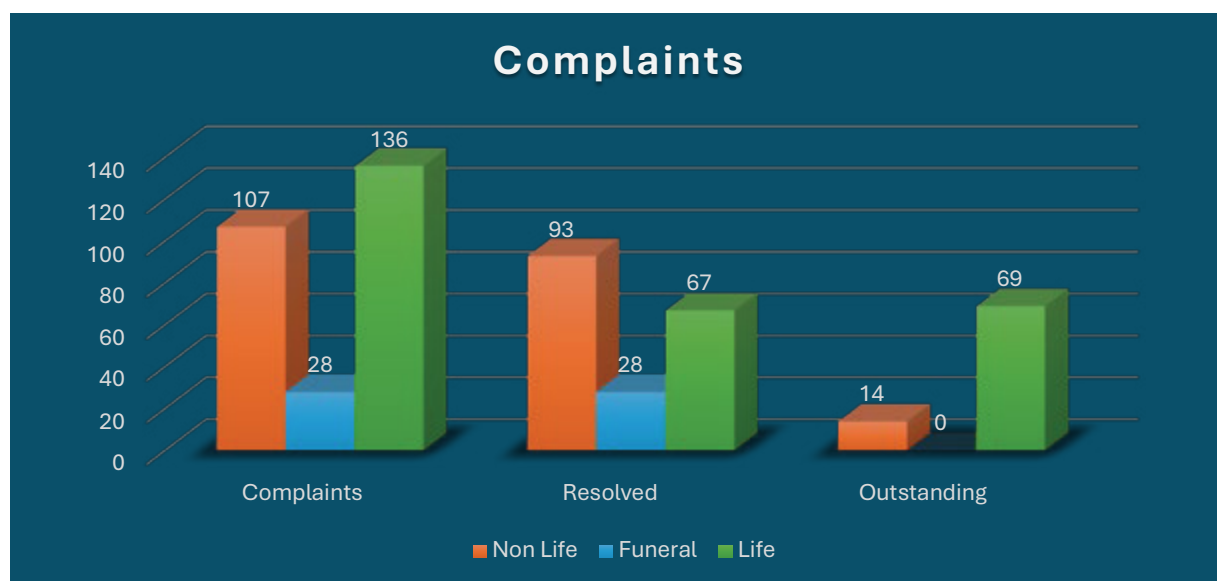

The Commission continues to receive positive comments from members of the public for opening a Complaints Handling Office in the Harare and Bulawayo CBDs as it brings convenience to the public.

Life business had the highest number of complaints. The major sources of complaints were unsatisfactory service and those related to the commission of inquiry. Complaints from short term related to settlement of third-party motor claims, continuous deduction of premiums on cancelled policies or paid-up policies and non-provision of policy document at policy inception.

Most of the complaints for funeral business emanated from non-provision of transport (bus) on funeral policies during the Covid -19 period and cancellation of beneficiaries on funeral policies.

15. Challenges

Below are some of the challenges that the Commission noted during the period under review:

15.1 Corporate Governance

Most entities were non-compliant with the minimum number of shareholders as stipulated by Statutory Instrument 49 of 1989. The Commission is engaging non-compliant entities with the objective of securing enforceable compliance roadmaps.

15.2 Low Compliance to Prescribed Asset Requirements

Most insurers were non-compliant with the minimum prescribed asset thresholds as stipulated in Statutory Instrument 206 of 2019. Non-compliant entities are submitting compliance roadmaps for consideration by the Commission. Compliance levels are, however, being affected by the dynamic macroeconomic environment in which asset values are constantly changing in response to inflation developments.

15.3 Under Insurance

The Commission noted with great concern the non-payment of claims due to under-insurance. This was mainly prevalent with policies that are insured in local currency. Insurers are encouraged to educate policyholders to constantly review their sum assureds especially for ZW$ denominated policies to maintain value. This will ensure that policyholders have confidence in insurance.

15.4 Illegal Traders

The insurance industry remains susceptible to illegal traders especially within the funeral assurance line of business. Registered insurance players and the general public are discouraged from dealing with unregistered players. The Commission will continue to hold public awareness campaigns to ensure that the public does not deal with unregistered entities.

15.5 Delays in the Promulgation of Bills into Law

The delay in the promulgation of the Insurance Bill into law is affecting the Commission to follow through on its mandate given the deficiencies in the current legal framework. The Insurance Bill once enacted is expected to enable the Commission to regulate the insurance industry more efficiently and effectively.

16. Conclusion

In conclusion, we celebrate the positive trends while addressing areas of concern. The year witnessed robust business expansion with increased gross premium written. Most players demonstrated commendable adherence to minimum capital requirements. This stability enhances overall industry resilience. Sufficient capital buffers ensure solvency and protect policyholder's interests.

On the way forward, collaborative efforts are essential with much engagement between the Commission and industry players to find pragmatic solutions. Strategic asset diversification can balance profitability and compliance. Transparency and proactive risk management will drive sustainable growth.

The Commission applauds Government efforts in addressing legacy issues surrounding the loss of value for policyholders and pensioners. The Commission is seized with addressing both the 2009 and 2019 loss of value.

In summary, the insurance sector celebrates achievements but acknowledges the need for continued vigilance and strategic alignment.
