1. Executive Summary

- 1.1. There were 981 registered occupational pension funds as at 31 December 2022 compared to 985 funds as at 31 December 2021.
- 1.2. The decrease was due to transfer of self-administered funds to participating employers of already existing umbrella funds as well as dissolution of funds.
- 1.3. Of these 981 funds, 504 were active, accounting for 51% of the industry's funds. The remaining 477 funds were inactive as they were either paid up or undergoing dissolution.
- 1.4. The industry's total membership, including beneficiaries, increased by 1.03% to 953,886 from 944,161 reported as at 31 December 2021. The increase was largely attributable to new entrants from newly registered funds and existing pension funds.
- 1.5. The value of the industry's assets was ZW$1.11 trillion resulting in a nominal increase of 248% from ZW$318.96 billion reported in the prior year. Notwithstanding the nominal increase, the industry assets declined to US$1.65 billion from US$2.94 billion. The nominal increase in the asset base was mainly driven by investment property and quoted equities.
- 1.6. Investment property had a nominal increase of 401%, to ZW$486.23 billion from ZW$96.74 billion at the same period the previous year.
- 1.7. The nominal value of quoted equities increased by 99.6% from ZW$158.27 billion as at 31 December 2021 to ZW$315.90 billion.
- 1.8. Prescribed assets were ZW$73.84 billion, constituting 7% of the industry's total assets as at the reporting date. This, compared to ZW$13 billion reported for the same period in the previous year. Notwithstanding the 468% increase in the amount invested in prescribed assets, the prescribed asset ratio is still below the regulatory minimum of 20%.
- 1.9. The overall income for the year was ZW$705.36 billion, up from ZW$174.57 billion recorded in the previous year. Total Income was primarily driven by fair value gains on investments, interest on investments and contributions, which accounted for 44%, 31% and 11% of total income, respectively.
- 1.10. Total expenditure was ZW$89.52 billion, with 76% of the total amount going towards benefits payments. Total expenditure growth reflected a nominal increase of 404% from ZW$17.77 billion for the same period ending December 31, 2021.

2 . Economic Overview

2.1. Global and Regional Economic Outlook

The Global economic outlook is expected to be weighed down by elevated inflationary pressures, tightening global financial conditions associated with high interest rate hikes by most central banks, and continued negative spill over effects from geopolitical tensions. Furthermore, the disruption of new waves of the COVID-19 pandemic continues to impact adversely on economic activity in some countries. The global growth is projected to moderate to 2.7% in 2023, marking the weakest growth profile since 2001, outside the 2009 global financial crisis and the acute phase of the Covid-19 pandemic.

2.2. Domestic Economic Outlook

Due to the base effect, global and domestic developments, particularly the impact of high inflation and resultant stabilisation measures on credit and demand, the economy is estimated to have grown by 4% in 2022, a further downward revision from the 4.6% projection (Ministry of Finance, 2022).

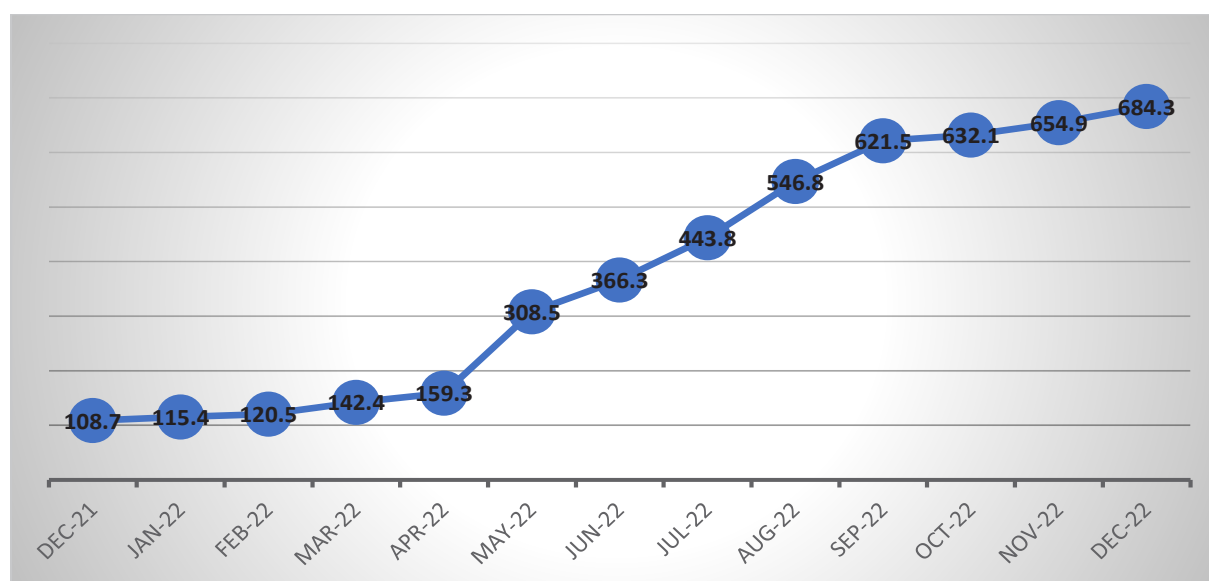

In the outlook, the Zimbabwean economy is projected to grow by 3.8% in 2023, compared to the NDS1 target of not less than 5%, on account of the uncertain global economic outlook and potential domestic adverse factors. In the medium term, GDP growth is projected to improve to about 4.8% and 5% in 2024 and 2025, respectively.

The Insurance and Pensions sector, like many other sectors in Zimbabwe, continues to operate under the following economic indicators.

2.3. Exchange Rate Developments

The Zimbabwe dollar depreciated against the US dollar from an average of US$1:ZW$621.5 as at 30 September 2022 to US$1:ZW$684.3 as at 31 December 2022. The exchange rate depreciation was caused by high demand for foreign currency as a store of value, as well as forward exchange rate pricing due to high inflation expectations.

End of period

2.4. Inflation Developments

The year-on-year inflation rate slowed down to 243.7% in December 2022, from 280.4% recorded in September 2022. The month-on-month inflation rate was 1.3% as at 31 December 2022, down from 2.5% recorded as at 30 September 2022 on account of the decrease in food and non-food inflation following the introduction of fiscal and monetary stabilisation measures. The figure below illustrates the inflation trend from December 2021 to December 2022.

2.5. Zimbabwe Stock Exchange Performance

The Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) traded in the red in the fourth quarter of 2022. As a result, the top 10 all share, top15, Medium, and Small Cap Indices all fell due to low trading during the festive season. The Mining Index, on the other hand, increased by 27.30% to close the month of December 2022 at 25,487.77 points, up from 20,021.24 points in June 2022. Owing to the negative trading exhibited on the local Bourse, coupled with the de-listing of some counters, the ZSE lost 16.17%, or ZW$394.30 billion worth of capitalisation to ZW$2,044.87 billion in December 2022, from ZW$2,439.17 billion in June 2022.

2.6. Victoria Falls Stock Exchange (VFEX) Performance

During the period under review, the Victoria Falls Stock Exchange (VFEX) displayed bearish sentiment. As a result, the VFEX All Share Index fell 17.82% in December 2022, closing at 94.83 points, down from 115,39 points in June 2022. Annually, the VFEX All Share fell 13.55% from 109.69 points in December 2021.

Furthermore, the above array of approved prescribed assets present an opportunity for the industry to diversify its portfolio.

4. Registered Pension Funds

4.1. There were 981 registered occupational pension funds as at 31 December 2022 compared to 985 funds as at 31 December 2021.

- 4.2. The decrease was due to a transfer of self-administered funds to participating employers of already existing umbrella funds as well as dissolutions of other funds.
- 4.3. Of these 981 funds, 504 were active, accounting for 51% of the industry's funds. The remaining 477 funds were inactive as they were either paid up or undergoing dissolution. In addition, 41 pension funds were defined benefit schemes whilst the remainder were defined contribution schemes.
- 4.4. Only 14 of the 981 registered funds conduct their own in-house fund administration business. The remainder, which are insured and self-administered funds, outsource the services to fund administrators.
- 4.5. There were 13 fund administrators registered with IPEC as at December 31, 2022. Five of the 13 administrators were independent administrators, while the remaining eight were registered life insurance companies.
- 4.6. The table below shows the allocation of pension funds managed by the respective administrators: -

Of the 10, nine were full registrations, whilst one was a provisional registration expiring in January 2023. Going forward, provisional registrations are no longer provided for in the recently promulgated Pensions and Provident Funds Act [Chapter 24:32].

Notes:

1. Total Investment income is made up of rental income, dividends, interest on investments, profit on disposal of assets and fair value gains.
2. Total Expenditure for the industry includes benefits paid, transfer to reserves, revaluation losses and provisions.
3. Expenses are calculated as total expenditure excluding items such as expenditure on benefits, transfers to reserves and revaluation losses.

6. Membership

Table 8: Membership Classes as at 31 December 2022

Membership Class	Insured Funds	Self-Administered Funds	Stand Alone Funds	December 2022 Total	December 2021 Total

Total Number of Exits	2,375	854	574	4,218	10,750

6.2. As shown on the table above, there was a 1.24% increase in total membership (including beneficiaries) from 944,161 to 953,886. This increase was mainly due to new entrants.

6.3. There was also a notable decline of 26.25% in members with unclaimed benefits from 151,253 to 111,542. The decline was mainly driven by transfer of members to the Guardian Fund as well as reclassification of membership category in line with Circular 28 of 2022.

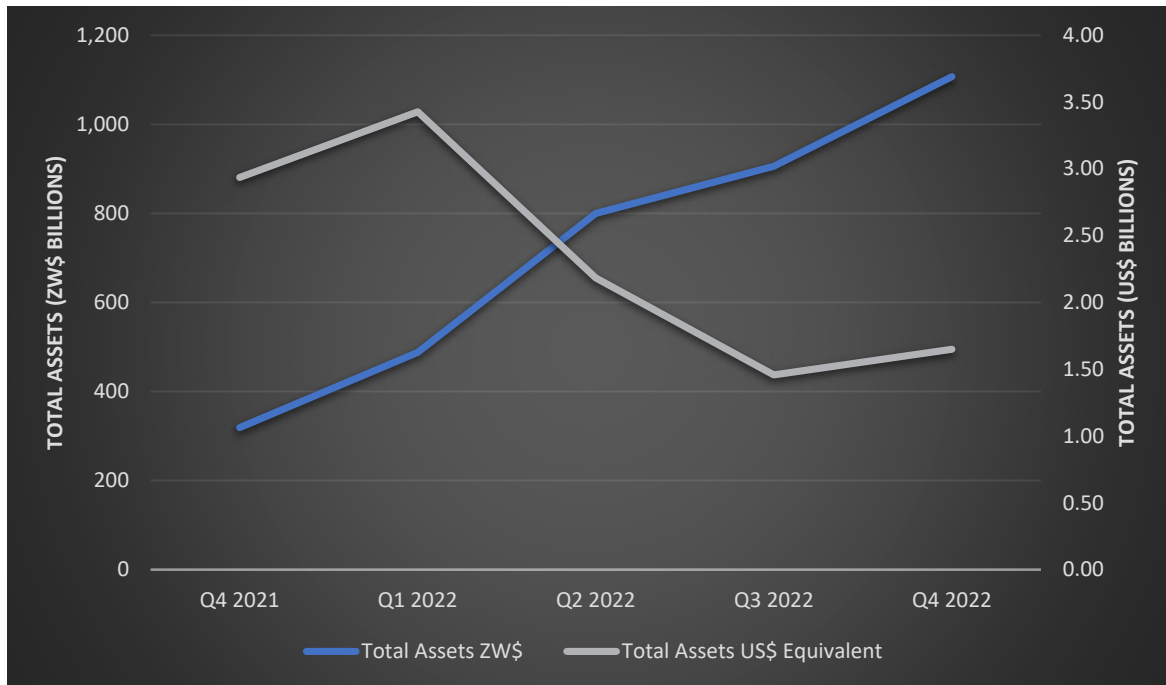

6.4. The correct classification of membership saw a re-categorisation of some members from the unclaimed benefits category to the deferred pensioners, which contributed to the increase of deferred pensioners from 368,933 to 406,544.

6.5. There was a decline in pensioners of 1.03%, which was attributed to full commutations processed during the period under review.

7. Assets

7.1. The industry's assets stood at ZW$ 1.11trillion, which was a nominal increase of 248% from ZW$318.96 billion reported in December 2021. The graphs below show the nominal change of total assets in ZW$ and US$ values

7.2. Notwithstanding the nominal increase in the industry's asset base, the value of assets in real terms declined by 43.88% to US$1.65 billion in December 2022 from US$2.94 billion in the previous year.

7.3. This is on the bearish performance of the stock market, which failed to outperform inflation. The decrease in value of total assets is also on account of infrequent valuation of investment property, whose valuations are generally done post the Q4 reporting period. The audited accounts of funds for 2022 are expected to indicate revalued investment property, thus calling for pension funds and insurers to explain the variance between Q4/2022 returns and the audited accounts.

7.5. As shown above, the industry's assets are concentrated in investment properties and quoted equities which account for 72% of the industry's total portfolio.

7.6. Investment property constituted 44% compared to 30% for the same period the previous year, indicating the industry's appetite on the asset class. However, the negative revaluation of listed equities also explains the increase in proportion of investment property to total assets. This proportion of investment property to total assets exceeded the regulatory investment threshold of 40% thereby increasing concentration risk.

7.7. Whilst there was a nominal increase in quoted equity investments by 100% for the period under review, its share to the industry total assets shrank from 50% to 28%.

7.8. Investments in unquoted equities increased by 567% from ZW$10.95 billion to ZW$73.03 billion. In addition, its share to total assets also increased from 3% to 7%. Whilst the asset class share was within the regulatory cap of 15%, the Commission will continue to monitor developments on the asset class' performance.

- 7.9. Prescribed assets amounting to ZW$73.84 billion, constituted 7% of the industry's total assets. This was a nominal increase of 467.82% from the prescribed assets investments of ZW$13 billion, which constituted 4.08% of total assets reported in December 2021. The increase was attributed to the additional investments, returns and fair value gains in prescribed assets investments.
- 7.10. Apart from the returns and capital appreciation, there was an increase in prescribed asset investments following the issuance of gold coins, which have prescribed asset status.
- 7.11. As at 31 December 2022, the industry had acquired 1,762 bullion coins of varying denominations with a value of ZW$2.29 billion up from the initial investment of ZW$170 million since their introduction in June 2022. The table below shows the investment in gold coins by the industry.

Table 9: Gold Coin Investments

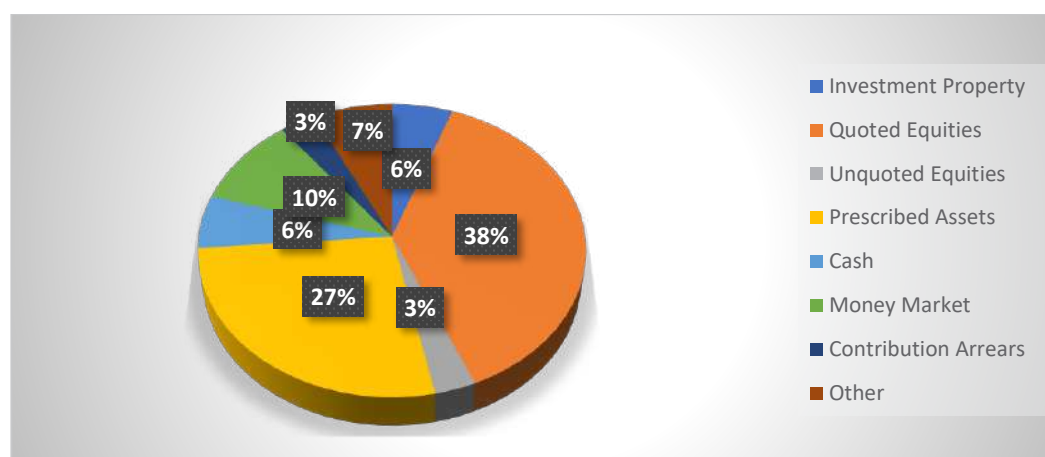

Denomination	Insured	Self Admin	Stand Alone	Total
0.1 Oz	-	2	-	2
0.25 Oz	-	1	20	21
0.5 Oz	9	35	-	44
1 Oz	27	1254	414	1695
Number of Coins	36	1,292	434	1,762
Value of Gold Coins (ZW$ billions)	0.04	1.69	0.55	2.29

- 7.12. The coins were acquired at an aggregated cost of ZW$1.9 billion and appreciated in value as a result of increases in the price of gold on the international market.

Forex Assets

- 7.13. As at 31 December 2022, foreign currency-denominated assets amounted to US$193.31 million constituting 11.73% of industry assets. The holding of foreign currency-denominated assets helps in cushioning the assets from being eroded by inflation in the current hyperinflationary environment.
- 7.14. The figure below shows the composition of foreign currency-denominated assets as at 31 December 2022.

7.15. As shown in figure 5 above, foreign currency-denominated assets of the industry were mainly invested in quoted equities, prescribed assets and money market investments, which collectively constituted 75%.

7.16. The quoted equity investments are mainly on the Victoria Falls Stock Exchange as well as a few foreign counters.

7.17. The list of investments in prescribed assets is as detailed in table 3 above.

7.18. Contribution arrears in foreign currency stood at US$6.3 million, thus constituting 3.26% of the industry's foreign currency-denominated assets.

7.19. The Commission calls upon the boards of funds to follow up with sponsoring employers to ensure that contributions are timeously remitted to the funds to avoid the prejudice on fund members.

8. Income

8.1. The total income for the period under review was ZW$705.36 billion compared to ZW$174.57 billion for the same period during the previous year. Of the ZW$705.36 billion, total income earned in foreign currency was US$47.23 million, which is equivalent to ZW$31.72 billion, thus constituting 4.49% of the industry's total income.

8.2. Notwithstanding the nominal increase in income by 304%, in USD terms, there was a decline of 35%, from US$ 1.61 billion to US$ 1.05 billion.

8.3. The major sources of income were fair value gains on investments, interest from investments and contributions amounting to ZW$312.72 billion, ZW$222.05 billion and ZW$80.71 billion, respectively. These three had nominal increases of 305%, 313% and 392%, respectively, compared to the prior year.

- 8.4. On average, the proportion of contribution arrears to contributions was 32% implying that the income that can be directed towards investments is significantly reduced since it is tied up in arrears. This means that the opportunity cost of the investment is forgone.

9. Expenditure

- 9.1. Total expenditure for the period under review was ZW$89.52 billion. Of that amount ZW$68.33 billion went towards the payment of benefits, thus 76% went towards the core mandate of paying benefits to members.
- 9.2. Total administrative expenses incurred were ZW$17.52 billion and were mainly driven by administration fees, asset management fees and staff costs, which constituted 67.84% of the administration expenses. In order to reduce the expenses, the Commission will continue to enforce compliance with the Expenses Framework.
- 9.3. The expense ratios for pension funds as at 31 December 2022 are shown in Annexure 9.

10. Financial Soundness

- 10.1. The pensions industry was determined to be at a medium risk level as at 31 December 2022.
- 10.2. The following risks were assessed in order to come up with the industry's overall risk rating:

Solvency Risk

- 10.3. This applies to defined benefit plans. It is the risk that the pension fund's assets are insufficient to meet its liabilities.
- 10.4. Based on the assessment of the industry's position, this risk was high on account of the industry's weighted average funding level, which was determined to be lower than the regulatory minimum of 75%.
- 10.5. The Commission will continue to engage the funds with low funding levels to ensure that the sponsoring employers inject capital into the pension funds to offset the actuarial deficit.

Market Risk

- 10.6. Following assessment of the industry's investments, the risk rating was determined to be medium.
- 10.7. This is due to the bulk of the assets being invested in 2 asset classes of investment property and equities raising the risk that if these two asset classes do not perform well, then the funds will be negatively affected.

Credit Risk

- 10.8. This is the risk of default on a debt by debtors of the pensions industry.
- 10.9. Given that the bonds, rental arrears, contribution arrears and other debts of the industry are a low proportion of the total assets, the risk was rated as low.

Investment Risk

- 10.10. This is the risk that investment returns are either negative or lower than inflation.
- 10.11. Following calculation of the investment performance for the period ended 31 December 2022, the risk was rated as medium. Investment risk was mainly driven by industry's two major asset classes, which are investment property and quoted equities. Whilst investment property outperformed inflation, quoted equities did not perform well due to the bearish performance of the stock market.

Agency Risk

- 10.12. This is the risk that costs of services provided to the industry will be high such that they take a significant portion of the assets, which will result in members being financially prejudiced.
- 10.13. The risk was rated to be high as average costs of expenses were above the issued regulatory thresholds.

Liquidity Risk

- 10.14. This is the risk of failure by the industry to make payments as they fall due because of lack of liquid assets that can be easily converted to cash.
- 10.15. The risk was rated to be low as current liabilities could be met with the available current assets.

Systemic Risk

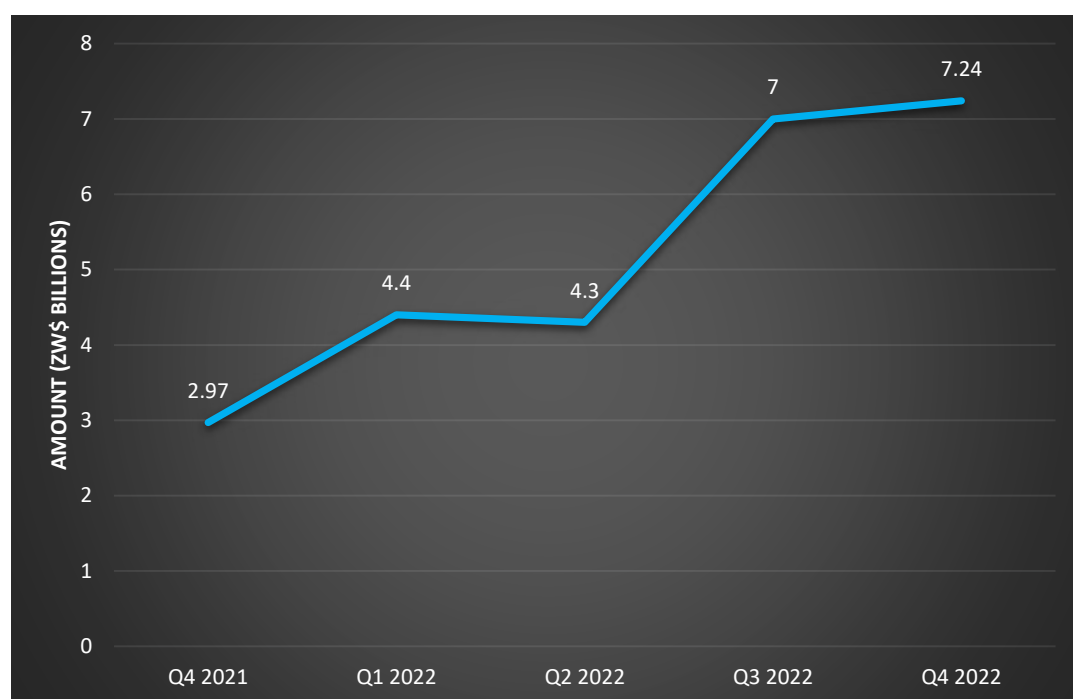

10.16. Risk of industry assets mainly concentrated in a few funds such that lack of performance of those funds will have a huge impact on the industry's reputation and stability.

10.17. This risk was determined to be medium as 48.14% of the industry assets are under Communication and Allied Industries, Mining Industry, NRZ and Old Mutual Insured Funds. This means that if anything happens to these entities, the impact on the industry will be severe.

11. Unclaimed Benefits

11.1. Total unclaimed benefits as of 31 December 2022 amounted to ZW$7.24 billion compared to ZW$2.97 billion reported as of 31 December 2021, representing an increase of 144%. The diagram below shows unclaimed benefits trend for the period 31 December 2021 to 31 December 2022:

11.2. Whilst there has been an increase in the nominal value of unclaimed benefits, membership for unclaimed benefits declined from 151,253 to 111,542. The decline was attributed to the transfer of some unclaimed benefits to the Guardian Fund as well as the reclassification of some benefits following the issuance of Circular 28 of 2022, which clearly defined the category of members to be classified as unclaimed benefits.

11.4. From the figure above, 59% of the unclaimed benefits are above five years. Given that all the benefits above five years are supposed to be transferred to the Guardian Fund, funds are urged to transfer in order for them to comply with the legal requirements.

Unclaimed Benefits Aging for Insured Funds

11.5. For the period under review, there was a slight upward movement in membership with a 0.03% increase and a total of 10639 total members. The unclaimed benefits constitute a 9.44% of the total unclaimed with an outstanding balance of ZW$1.03 billion. Unclaimed benefits above 5 years constitute a 32% of the outstanding balance. Transfer of funds to Guardian Funds is still very low and the Commission urges all entities to comply.

Unclaimed Benefits Aging for Self-Administered Funds

11.6. The membership of unclaimed benefits reduced by 31% due to reclassification by Comarton after issuance of Circular 28 of 2022.

11.7. Self-administered funds constituted 30% of the monetary value in terms of the total unclaimed benefits of the industry.

Figure 9: Unclaimed Benefits Aging for Self-Administered Funds

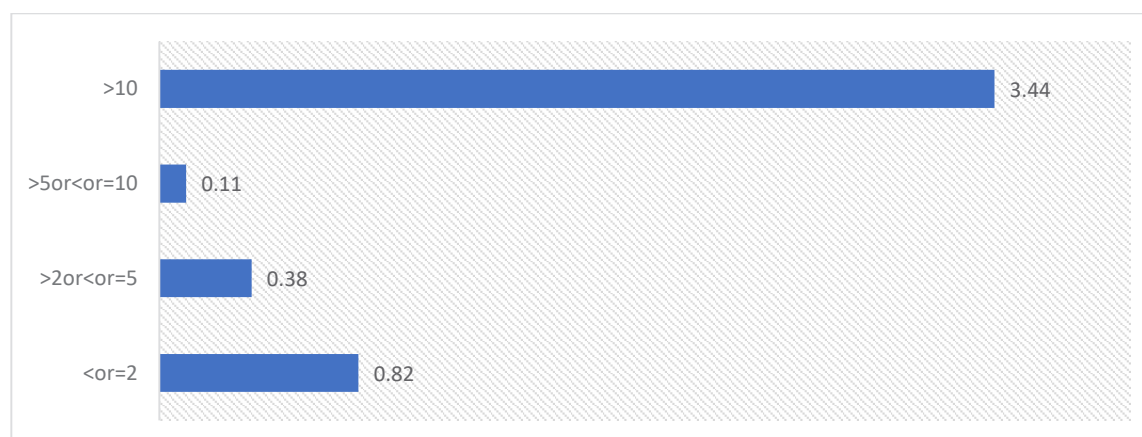

Unclaimed Benefits Aging for Stand-Alone

11.8. The membership of unclaimed benefits for stand-alone funds rose to 93,364 from 91,165 translating a 2% increase in membership. The sector accounted for 55% of the total industry's unclaimed benefits in the period under review.

11.9. The Commission is in continuous engagement with the funds to ensure that the members are traced and paid their benefits. The Clothing Industry Pension Fund remains outstanding in unclaimed benefits and membership, which is increasing each quarter. The Commission is looking forward to an onsite inspection to try and unveil the challenges at source.

12. Suspended Pensioners

12.1. The benefits liability for suspended pensioners rose to ZW$1.5 billion, increasing by ZW$522 million from ZW$988 million reported in September 2022, signifying a 53% increase in the suspended pensioners' liability.

12.3. In terms of membership, there were 12,361 members under suspended pensioners, signifying an increase of 2% in the number of suspended pensioners. Insured funds and stand-alone funds continued to have the highest number of suspended pensioners. The graph below shows the distribution of suspended pensioners' membership by type of fund.

12.4. Insured funds had 5,769 suspended members, which was a decrease from 7,330 in Q3/2022, followed by stand-alone funds with 4,031 who also had a decrease from 8,156 members in Q3/2022. The self-administered funds had a suspended membership of 2,561, which was a decrease from 3,050 in Q3/2022. The Commission continues to monitor the industry's communication with members and beneficiaries whose benefits are suspended for want of life certificates.

13. Non-resident Pensioners

13.1. The total amount due to non-resident pensioners as at the end of Q4/2022 amounted to US$661,259 (ZW$444 million), compared to US$393,181 (ZW$264 million) reported at the end of third quarter 2022.

- 13.3. Standalone pension funds had the largest amount of the non-resident pension arrears, which amounted to US$435,797, thus constituting 66% of total amount due. The amount includes US$77,445 for NRZ non-resident pensioners who are always paid bi-annually in arrears.
- 13.4. In addition, there was also an increase in non-resident pensioners membership to 3,662 from 3,115 reported in the previous quarter. The figure below shows the distribution of membership for non-resident pensioners.

- 13.5. Most non-resident pensioners reported were under stand-alone funds, which accounted for 55% of the pensioners, followed by insured funds, which accounted for 42% while self-administered funds accounted for only 3% of the non-resident pensioners.

14. Commutations

14.1. The total amount commuted during the fourth quarter of 2022 was ZW$358.79 million which was paid to 235 members.

14.3. An analysis of the total commutations approved in the quarter under review revealed that 46% related to partial commutations, followed by full commutations accounting for 36%.

14.4. A total of ZW$164 million was paid for partial commutations, of which 64% of this amount (ZW$105 million) went towards educational purposes, whilst ZW$131 million was paid for full commutations, of which ZW$87 million went towards building and home improvement, accounting for 66% of full commutations.

14.6. The top three reasons for commutations were education, retirement and funding for building and home improvements.

15. Pensions Complaints

15.1. The Commission received 214 complaints during the fourth quarter of 2022, of which 71 were resolved, representing 33.18% resolution rate. The table below summarises the complaints received during the quarter under review:

Resolved	2019 Compensation	Commission of Inquiry	Other	Total Received
71	25	90	28	214

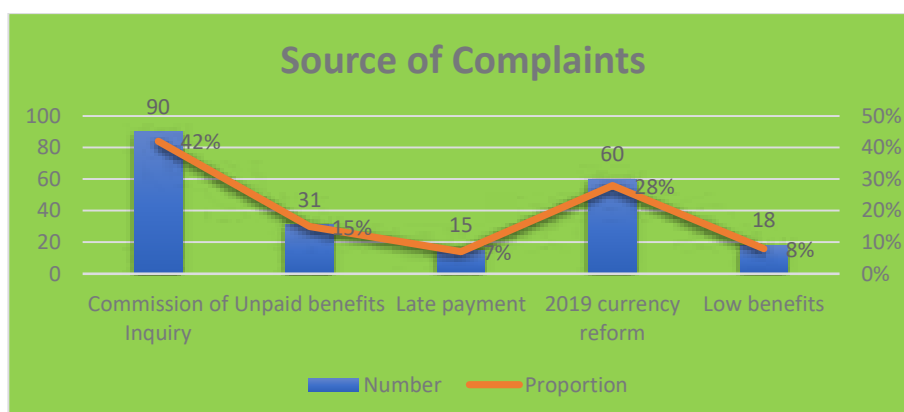

15.2. The Commission noted the following as the general challenges facing the pensions industry during the quarter under review:

- Non-payment of pension benefits.
- Low values caused by hyperinflation and dollarisation in February 2009.
- Near stagnant monthly pensions that have been eroded by inflation.
- Late payment of benefits.
- Little or no payment of benefits in US dollars.

15.3. Complaints related to low pension values occasioned by the currency conversion of 2009 accounted for 42% of the complaints received. Some of the pensioners believe that the US$175 million, which was promised by Government was already paid to the Commission and should be disbursed immediately.

15.4. The delay in payment of compensation for the 2009 loss of values continues to be a source of many complaints received by the Commission as shown in the graph below:

Figure17: Source of Complaints

15.5. A total of 31 pensioners (15%), complained about non-payment of benefits whilst late payment of benefits, accounted for 7%, low benefits had 18 complaints representing 8% and late payment of benefits had 7% of complaints during the same period. Fund members and beneficiaries also raised concerns about the criteria used to identify beneficiaries of the 2019 Compensation as well as when the next batch will be invited to access their benefits. This category accounted for 28% of the complaints received in the quarter under review.

16. Pension Fund Administrators

- 16.1. Pension fund administrators earned total income of ZW$11.58 billion as a result of carrying on fund administration business for the year to 31 December 2022. Fund administration fees recorded for the period under review was ZW$3.12 billion.
- 16.2. During the period under review, six (6) out of the 13 administrators recorded USD business. The forex business transacted amounted to US$1.5 million and constituted 9% of total income.
- 16.3. Capitol Insurance Brokers was the only administrator which neither transacted nor reported any business.
- 16.4. The major income sources for administrators are shown in the table below:

Table 10: Sources of Income for Administrators

- 16.5. The Commission is investigating the source of “other income” for administrators to assess if the income is consistent with the activities of pension fund administrators.
- 16.6. Total expenditure incurred was ZW$13.94 billion, which mainly comprises staff costs, advertising and rentals, resulting in a loss of ZW$2.36 billion. In spite of the overall loss made by the administrators, it is worth noting that only 3 out of the 13 incurred losses and the remaining 10 posted profits.
- 16.7. It was noted that the three administrators that reported losses are part of group structures, and the Commission has commenced engagement with the affected entities to ascertain the source of the losses.
- 16.8. Total assets for independent administrators amounted to ZW$206.07 million and US$22,069.
- 16.9. The breakdown of assets for independent administrators is as shown in the following table:

Table 11: Independent Administrators' Asset Distribution
