3. Economic Overview

Global and Regional Economic Outlook

- 3.1. The IMF projects global economic growth of 2.8% in 2023, which is lower than previously projected due to the developed world's adverse economic conditions as a result of geopolitical tensions, elevated debt levels, and the impact of tight monetary policies. The advanced economies are expected to grow by 1.3%, with the United States growing by 1.6%, the United Kingdom (0.3%) and the European Union (0.8%), while China and India are expected to grow by 5.2% and 5.9%, respectively.
- 3.2. The Sub-Saharan region is expected to grow at 3.6% in 2023, due to the ongoing impact of global shocks and increases in global financial lending rates.

Domestic Economic Outlook

- 3.3. With respect to the domestic economy, growth is now projected at 5.3% in 2023. ZIMSTAT estimates economic growth during the first quarter of 2023 at 6.2% and 6.5% for the year 2022. Such growth rates put Zimbabwe among the fastest growing economies in Africa.

Inflation Developments

- 3.4. Weighted annual inflation was generally slowing until May 2023, when prices increased significantly in June to 175.8%. However, prices have begun to fall, with month-on-month inflation for July standing at -15.3%, while year-on-year growth has slowed to 101.3%.
- 3.5. Inflation is expected to slow further in response to measures implemented by the Government in May and June 2023 to instil confidence, boost demand for the local currency, and promote market discipline.

5. Registered Pension Funds

- 5.1. There were 970 registered occupational pension funds as at 30 June 2023 compared to 977 funds as at 30 June 2022.
- 5.2. The decrease of 19 funds was as a result of transfers, mergers, dissolutions and the exclusion of funds, which had previously been double counted as a result of dual reporting. On the other hand, 12 new funds were registered.
- 5.3. Of the 970 funds, 492 were active, accounting for 51% of the industry's funds. The remaining 478 funds were inactive as they were either paid up or undergoing dissolution. In addition, 37 pension funds were defined benefit schemes whilst the remainder were defined contribution schemes. This was a decline from the 39 reported in the prior year as 2 funds had been wrongly classified. Pension fund administrators are implored to consistently classify pension schemes under their purview, maintain good quality data and properly effect any changes as they arise.
- 5.4. Only 14 of the 970 registered funds conduct their own in-house fund administration business. The remainder, which are insured and self-administered funds, outsource the services to fund administrators.
- 5.5. There were 13 fund administrators registered with IPEC as at 30 June 2023. Five of the 13 administrators were independent administrators, while the remaining eight were registered life assurance companies conducting fund administration business.
- 5.6. The table below shows the allocation of pension funds managed by the respective administrators: -

During the period under review, eight (8) out of the 13 administrators recorded USD business.

- 5.8. Income from fund administration fees earned by administrators for services rendered during the half year to 30 June 2023 was ZW$6 billion, constituting 3.75% of contributions and 30% of the total income. Of the administration fees earned, 51% was transacted in foreign currency. Capitol Insurance Brokers was the only fund administrator which did not conduct any business, either in forex or local currency as it has since relinquished fund administration business while awaiting the transfer of the fund under its purview.
- 5.9. The table below shows the administration fees earned by administrators.

- 5.10. Administrators with ratios greater than 50% are largely conducting business other than fund administration, for which they are licensed, as the income earned surpasses the contributions by a very wide margin.
- 5.11. Fidelity and Comarton Consultants had high total contributions to income ratios indicating a possibility that a greater portion of their income is realised from sources alternative to fund administration business. Therefore, there is need to enforce separate of administration business from other income generating activities to ensure that fund administrators operate within the confines of their licenses .
- 5.12. Total expenditure incurred was ZW$38.94 billion, which mainly comprised staff costs, advertising and rentals, resulting in a loss of ZW$18.60 billion. The losses were funded using short term borrowings. In spite of the overall loss made by the administrators, it is worth noting that four out of the 13 incurred losses. The major expense drivers were staff costs.
- 5.13. It was noted that one of the four administrators that reported losses is part of group structures, calling for the need to review cost allocation within the Group and guard against transfer pricing.
- 5.14. The table below shows the administration fees as a component of total income and the extent to which such fees are in forex.

- 5.24. There was a 0.49% increase in total membership (including beneficiaries) from 976,060 to 978,896. This increase was mainly due to new entrants of newly registered funds.
- 5.25. There was also a significant decline of 18% in members with unclaimed benefits from 115,365 to 94,994. The decline was due to the transfer of 132 members to the Guardian Fund, as well as reclassification of membership in line with Circular 28 of 2022.
- 5.26. There was a 3% decline in pensioners, which was attributed to full commutations processed during the period under review. The number and value of commutations are indicated in table under section 13 below.

6. Assets

- 6.1. The industry's assets stood at ZW$ 9.14 trillion, which was a nominal increase of 1,043% from ZW$298.56 billion reported in June 2022.
- 6.2. The value of assets in real terms increased by 314.68% when compared to the previous year.
- 6.3. The asset composition of the industry is as shown on the figure below:

- 6.4. As shown above, the industry's assets are concentrated in investment properties and quoted equities, which constituted 79% of the industry's total portfolio.
- 6.5. Investment property constituted 52% of total assets compared to 38% for the same period last year. This indicates the industry's investment preference of the asset class and the higher rate of increase in property values in line with inflation compared to other asset classes representing a nominal increase of 1,493%.
- 6.6. On the other hand, quoted equity investments declined from 40% to 26%, notwithstanding the nominal increase of 664%, following the bearish trend in the stock market that was experienced at the end of the first quarter of 2023.
- 6.7. Investments in unquoted equities increased by 1,186% from ZW$14 billion to ZW$49 billion. Its share to total assets remained constant at 3%. The Commission will continue to monitor the valuation of private equity investments to ensure consistency and comparability within the industry.
- 6.8. Prescribed assets amounting to ZW$700 billion, constituted 8% of the industry's total assets. This was a nominal increase of 1,115% from the prescribed assets investments of ZW$62.69 billion, which also constituted 8% of total assets reported in June 2022. The increase was attributed to additional investments as well as fair value gains and return on investments.
- 6.9. As at 30 June 2023, the industry had acquired 1,887 coins of varying denominations worth ZW$23.03 billion. The coins were acquired at a cost of ZW$ 2.02 billion and appreciated in value as the price of gold and exchange rate movements soared. The table below shows the investment in gold coins by the industry: -

Table 10: Gold Coin Investments

Denomination	Insured	Self Admin	Standalone	Total
0.1Oz	-	2	10	12
0.25Oz		1	32	33
0.5Oz	9	35	2	46

Number of coins	64	1,337	486	1,887
Value (ZW$ billions)	0.75	16.58	5.69	23.03

- 6.10. During the second quarter, industry recorded its debut disposal, with only seven bullion coins sold since their introduction into the market.
- 6.11. Gold coins can now be converted to digital tokens, which were recently introduced in the economy as a way of expanding value preserving instruments. As at the date of reporting, no conversion had transpired.
- 6.12. The industry acquired 2.38 million milligrams of tokens at a cost of ZW$401.43 million. As at the reporting date, the investment in the tokens was worth ZW$964.56 million, being an absolute increase of 140%.

Table 11: Gold Backed Digital Tokens

Sector	Value (ZW$ millions)	Tokens held (MG in millions)
Self Admin	796.69	1.97
Standalone	167.86	0.41
Total	964.56	2.38

- 6.13. The investments made by industry in the gold backed tokens show that self-administered funds invested 83% of the industry's total investment with the remaining 13% under the standalone funds, while the insured sector is yet to tread the digital gold path.
- 6.14. Pension funds are encouraged to invest in such value preserving instruments which can facilitate Person-to-Person (P2P) and Person-to-Business (P2B) transactions.
- 6.15. The gold backed digital tokens are tradable as a means of payment, used as a store of value and bear prescribed asset status.

7. Forex Assets

- 7.1. Foreign currency-denominated assets amounted to US$288 million, constituting 18% of total industry assets. This reflects a slight growth in forex business from a proportion 16% in the prior period.
- 7.2. The holding of foreign currency-denominated assets helps in cushioning the assets from being eroded by inflation in the current hyperinflationary environment.
- 7.3. The figure below illustrates the composition of foreign currency-denominated assets.

- 7.4. As shown in figure 2 above, foreign currency-denominated assets of the industry were mainly invested in equities, prescribed assets and money market investments, which collectively constituted 72%.
- 7.5. The quoted equity investments are mainly on the Victoria Falls Stock Exchange.
- 7.6. The list of currently available prescribed asset instruments is detailed in table 3 above.
- 7.7. Contribution arrears stood at US$10.1million, thus constituting 3.5% and 54.3% of the industry's foreign currency-denominated assets and income from contributions, respectively.
- 7.8. The Commission calls upon the boards of funds to follow up with sponsoring employers to ensure that contributions are timeously remitted to the funds to avoid the prejudice on fund members.
- 7.9. Furthermore, it is crucial for the sponsoring employers to remit contributions in time to avoid their accounts being garnished by the Regulator.

8. Income

- 8.1. The total income for the period under review was ZW$7.67 trillion compared to ZW$310.24 billion for the same period the previous year. Of the ZW$7.67 trillion, total income earned in foreign currency was US$51 million, which is equivalent to ZW$295 billion, thus constituting 4% of the industry's total income.
- 8.2. The major source of income was fair value gains on investments, constituting 89% of total income, amounting to ZW$6.83 trillion.
- 8.3. Contributions constituted 2% of total income with a total of ZW$160 billion. The proportion of contribution arrears to contributions was 83%, the major contributor being Stand Alone sector with 72%.

- 9.1. Total expenditure for the period under review was ZW$117 billion. Of that amount, ZW$73.6 billion, which was 63% of expenses went towards the payment of benefits to members.
- 9.2. Total administrative expenses incurred were ZW$30.3 billion and were driven by staff costs, asset management fees and administration fees which constituted 73.6% of the administration expenses. The Commission will continue to enforce compliance with the Expenses Framework.
- 9.3. The expense ratios for all funds used in assessing compliance with the expense's framework are shown in annexure 9.

10. Unclaimed Benefits

- 10.1. Unclaimed benefits for the quarter ended 30 June 2023 amounted to ZW$27 billion compared to ZW$4.3 billion reported during the same quarter in 2022. The increase in value of unclaimed benefits is on account of investment returns on the assets supporting the unclaimed benefits. Membership with unclaimed benefits was 98,076 compared to 106,000 recorded as at 30 June 2022.
- 10.2. However, these figures exclude Catering Industry Pension Fund that had not provided same at the time of the report.

- 10.3. Stand-alone funds had the largest membership with unclaimed benefits at 86%, followed by insured funds accounting for 11% and self-administered at 3%.

Industry Unclaimed Benefits Age Analysis

- 10.4. It was observed that unclaimed benefits with more than 10 years accounted for 78%, followed by six to ten years at 8%. All unclaimed benefits aged five years and above should have been remitted to the Guardian Fund under the Master of the High Court as per the requirement of the Administration of Estates Act [Chapter 6:01].
- 10.5. A total amount of ZW$82,44million unclaimed benefits for 432 insured fund members under Old Mutual Life Assurance Company were transferred to the Guardian Fund during the quarter under review.

- 10.9. For the period under review, about ZW$19.5 billion of unclaimed benefits over 10 years are attributable to stand-alone funds owing to 81,657 members. The clothing Industry Pension Fund alone contributes 79295 members with unclaimed benefits. The issue of poor data integrity remains a concern which needs close monitoring and updating by the industry.

- 10.10. Stand-alone unclaimed benefits membership for the quarter under review was 84,779 which accounted for ZW$20, 5 billion out of ZW$27 billion of the total industry with a membership of 98,076.

11. Suspended Pensioners

- 11.1. The benefits liability for suspended pensioners in the quarter under review stood at ZW$2,530 million.

- 11.5. The graph above shows the distribution of suspended pensioners' membership by type of fund:

- 11.6. The Commission continues to monitor the industry's communication with members and beneficiaries whose benefits are suspended for want of life certificates.

12. Non- resident Pensioners

- 12.1. The graph above shows the breakdown of amounts, which were due to non-resident pensioners by fund type for this quarter and for the two preceding quarters.

Distribution of Commutations by Type

13.1. The total amount commuted during the period under review was ZW$ 1.5 billion.

13.3. An analysis of the total commutations approved in the quarter under review revealed that 79% related to full commutations, followed by 10% partial commutations, whilst one third commutations were at 7% and exit top-ups at 4%.

- 13.4. The top three reasons for commutations in Q2/2023 were home improvements as 43% of the commuters wanted to build and improve their houses, of which 18% commuted through retirement, followed by retrenchments, which had 15% of those commuters.

- 13.5. The Commission urges funds and administrators to put in place measures to ensure that members who are exiting through commutations prior to final bonus declarations do not leave value in the fund. In addition, industry is encouraged to institute consumer education on the pros and cons for commutations, particularly when assets are depressed.

14. Complaints

- 14.1. During Q2/ 2023, the Commission recorded 45 complaints. The graph below shows the distribution of complaints received per month.
- 14.2. The highest number of complaints, that is, 18 was reported in June 2023, closely followed by May in which 17 complaints were recorded, and the least number (10), of complaints was recorded in April 2023.

Nature of Complaints

- 14.3. The chart and the table below show the nature of complaints for the period under review. Most of the complaints received relate to unpaid benefits which constituted 22.

- 14.4. This accounted for 48.89% of all complaints received. Commission of inquiry related complaints and other complaints recorded 6 complaints each.
- 14.5. Delay in payment of benefits, 2019 currency reforms and inadequate pension benefits recorded 3 complaints each. Two complaints were related to lack of information, that is 4.4% of all complaints received under the period under review.
- 14.6. The graph below shows the distribution of complaints by entity.

- 14.7. Old Mutual Life Assurance had the highest number of complaints as depicted on the graph above.
- 14.8. It accounted for 28.89% as compared to complaints received by other entities, followed by Minerva Employee Benefits and First Mutual Life with 8.89% respectively.

15. Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism and Proliferation Financing

Customer Due Diligence

- 15.1. The Commission requires all entities to provide quarterly self-rated updates on the effectiveness of Customer Due Diligence (CDD), Know Your Customer (KYC) and Customer Risk Assessment through AML/CFT/CPF returns as part of risk mitigation measures.
- 15.2. The following are highlights of the 2023 second quarter submissions:
- Majority of the entities self-rated their CDD/KYC procedure as satisfactory with few rated fair.
 - The Commission noted that few entities provided justification for the ratings as required.
 - For those which submitted comments, there were inconsistencies between ratings and the information submitted.
- 15.3. Going forward, all entities are reminded to support their ratings with tangible evidence which must be provided to the Commission upon request.
- 15.4. Commission has noted with concern that some entities are not conducting customer risk assessments, as indicated by nil returns on customer ML/TF risk indicators. Most entities indicate that they do not have any high-risk clients in their books, which may be an indication of poor customer due diligence procedures and processes. As part of increasing industry awareness, the Commission has provided a detailed the CDD procedure below.
- 15.5. Failure to conduct proper due diligence is an offence in terms in the Money Laundering and Proceeds of Crime Act [Chapter 9:24].

Why Customer Due Diligence?

- 15.6. Customer Due Diligence (CDD) control measures or processes are intended to ensure that the pension fund, administrator, insurer, reinsurer, broker and agent;
 - i. know the identity of each customer and related third parties,
 - ii. understand and obtain relevant information on the type of transactions that the customer undertakes;
 - iii. evaluate the intended nature of the business relationship and
 - iv. conduct ongoing monitoring on the business relationship and transactions.

Initial CDD Procedures

- 15.7. Initial CDD procedures include processes to:
 - v. Identify and verify the identity of each customer, or persons acting on his/her behalf, before establishing a business relationship;
 - vi. Identify the beneficial owner(s) of customers and beneficiary (if any), and take reasonable measures to verify their identity;
 - vii. The identity of the beneficiary should be verified at the time of the payout. The beneficiary, if known, should be part of the risk factors on the basis of which the entity will determine if the relationships is higher risk and enhanced due diligence measures should be applied (e.g., in case the known beneficiary is a PEP).
 - viii. Obtain appropriate information to understand the customer's circumstances and business, including the purpose and the expected nature of the relationship (for example for natural persons: income, wealth, profession, activity; for legal entities: financial statement).
- 15.8. The above measures enable entities to assess the overall risk of their business relationships with these customers.
- 15.9. For group life insurance policies, where the insured persons have active powers on the contract (e.g., to inject sums in the contract, establish the beneficiary, exercise early surrender of the amounts), they should be treated like other customers, and CDD must be applied, as well as on their related third parties. In cases where the insured persons have no active powers, their names have to be screened against sanctions lists, but it is not mandatory to conduct full CDD checks.
- 15.10. Entities should subject higher risk customers to more intensive (enhanced) due diligence measures and should also monitor their subsequent transactions with greater sensitivity.
- 15.11. Simplified due diligence should be applied to lower risk customers, if the relationships with those customers are considered lower risk (e.g., customers with no characteristics of ML/TF risks, who hold only lower risk products).
- 15.12. It is important to note that customer risk profiles may change, for example if a customer with only low risk products subsequently purchases a higher risk product. Entities should have processes in place to trigger more extensive due diligence in these circumstances.
- 15.13. Assessments of customer ML/TF risks should be performed using a documented, ongoing process that assigns and updates customer risk ratings. Depending on the nature and complexity of the business, customer risk ratings can be enhanced through automated solutions that automatically assigns risk scores, and to adjust the level of customer due diligence and monitoring dependent on the scoring.
- 15.14. CDD measures also apply to existing customers, and their beneficial owners, based on materiality and risk, and taking into account whether and when CDD measures have previously been undertaken and the adequacy of data obtained.
- 15.15. The various transactions or trigger events that occur after the insurance contract effective date indicate where due diligence should be performed, for example, claims notification, surrender requests, renewal of the policy, policy alterations, such as changes in beneficiaries, increase of assurance amounts.

- 15.16. EDD include obtaining additional information on the intended nature of the business relationship, and on the source of wealth or source of funds of the customer.
- 15.17. EDD is also required for business relationships with all foreign PEPs, domestic PEPs and international PEPs. The EDD process involves:
- Obtaining senior management approval before establishing or continuing the relationship;
 - Taking reasonable steps to establish the source of wealth and the source of funds; and
 - Conducting enhanced monitoring on the relationship.
- 15.18. In instances where higher risks are identified in relation to beneficiaries or their beneficial owners, senior management should be informed and enhanced scrutiny to be conducted on the whole business relationship with the policyholder, prior to a payout being made. This includes determining whether filing a STR is appropriate.
- 15.19. Additional controls for higher risk situations may include closer monitoring such as increased monitoring of transactions (frequency, thresholds, volumes, etc.)

Ongoing Risk Monitoring and Mitigation

- 15.20. Monitoring involves the scrutiny of activity to determine whether it is consistent with the information held relating to the customer and the nature and purpose of the business relationship. Monitoring can be manual, automated or a combination of both. It considers all products held by the customer, and also involves identifying changes to the customer risk profile (for example, the customer's behaviour, use of products and the amount of money involved) and keeping information in relation to this up to date, which may trigger the application of enhanced CDD measures.
- 15.21. Not all transactions, accounts/policies/contracts, or customers will necessarily be monitored in the same way or to the same degree. Where appropriate, entities may use automated tools to monitor transactions. Entities should define adequate thresholds or scenarios to filter out unusual transactions regarding the risk profile of a given customer.

Conclusion

- 15.22. The Commission will continue to monitor industry quarterly submissions for improvements in ML/TF control measures being implemented considering the ML/TF risks an entity is exposed to.
- 15.23. Justifications for self-ratings should detail the procedures in place and their level of effectiveness.
- 15.24. Failure to timely submit returns will result in penalties being levied on non-compliant entities.
